

Conference diary

▶ 1995 Indonesian Television and Radio Conference, 16-18 January, Jakarta

An opportunity for executives to discuss the dynamic developments taking place in the Indonesian broadcasting market. 🏠 Hilton International Hotel, Jakarta. Rp 3,3000. Contact: AIC Global Media Division, AIC Hong Kong. Tel: (852) 520 1481. Fax: (852) 866 7340.

▶ 1995 Asia and Middle East Television Conference, 18-20 January, London

Covers such topics as developing cable and satellite systems in India, South East Asia, the Middle East, China, Taiwan and Hong Kong as well as regulation and policy issues in Asia. 🏠 Forte Crest Bloomsbury, London. £1405. Contact: Rebecca Lim, AIC Conferences, Singapore. Tel: (65) 222 8550. Fax: (65) 226 3264.

▶ Interactive TV, 19-20 January, London

Topics to be discussed include: degree of interactivity and the type of interface required; the price consumers will pay for interactive services; the optimum technology mix for interactive home services; and the development of subscriber management systems. 🏠 Portman Hotel, London. £816.63. Contact: IIR Ltd, London. Tel: (071) 412 0141. Fax: (071) 412 0145.

▶ The UK Cable Industry: The Need to Innovate and Diversify 26-27 January, London

The number of market players is contracting but the potential audience expanding and competition is intense. Interactive television, video-on demand, pay-per-view, home banking and ordering merchandise are some of the choices. 🏠 Rembrandt Hotel, London. £816.63. Contact: ICM, Surrey. Tel: (014) 833 7557. Fax: (014) 833 3082.

▶ Exploiting the Potential of the Information Superhighway, 31 January-1 February, London

Business benefits of the information superhighway and opportunities of interactive multimedia. 🏠 London Marriot. £934.13. Contact: IBC Financial Focus Ltd. Tel: (071) 637 4383. Fax: (071) 323 4298.

▶ Multimedia '95, 4-15 February, Sydney

Highlights the multimedia industry and how to profit from the multimedia revolution, opportunities in the export market, government-industry agendas and the role of multimedia. 🏠 Sheraton Wentworth, Sydney. $1495 (less for two days). Contact: AIC Conferences, Sydney. Tel: (02) 210 5777. Fax: (02) 221 7773.

▶ 1995 Indian Satellite and Cable Television Conference' 13-15 February, Bombay

Examines major cable and satellite television issues and opportunities in India. 🏠 Taj International Hotel, Bombay. $US1895. Contact: AIC Conferences, Hong Kong. Tel: (852) 520 1481. Fax: (852) 866 7340.

▶ 1995 Australian Broadcasting Summit, 20-21 February, Sydney

Seminars on the themes of regulation and programming in broadcasting, and technology options for the future. Speakers include Colin Knowles and John Corker, ABA. 🏠 Hotel Inter-Continental, Sydney. $1395. Contact: IIR Conferences, North Sydney. Tel: (02) 954 5844. Fax: (02) 959 4684.

▶ World Summit on Television and Children, 12-17 March, Melbourne

Topics include: rights of children; financing children's programs; and responsibilities of broadcasting to children. 🏠 World Congress, Melbourne. $700. Contact: World Summit on Television and Children, Australian Children's Television Foundation, Carleton, Victoria. Tel: (03) 348 1144. Fax: (03) 347 4194. 📠