

Conference report: The Digital Millenium— opportunities for Asian media

The Asian Media Information and Communication Centre (AMIC) held its 9th Annual Conference in Singapore on 29 June – 1 July. The conference which provides an annual forum for communication practitioners, academics, media persons, researchers and scholars to meet was attended by more than two hundred people. Mr Lim Swee Say, Minister of State for Communications and Information Technology and Trade and Industry, Singapore gave the keynote address on, 'The Digital Millennium – Opportunities for Asian Media'. The calibre of participants was very high with strong support from India and the Philippines. The conference was a highly interesting and valuable event providing a forum for interaction and discussion of trends and issues affecting communications in the region. Gareth Grainger of the ABA represented Australia and spoke on 'Internet Governance: Role of State and Society'.

A full copy of the text of Mr Grainger's speech is on the ABA web site: www.aba.gov.au.
