

RadComms 2006 conference papers now available

RadComms 2006 – Reaching for New Spectrum Horizons was the first ACMA conference on spectrum management. The conference, which will be held annually, was held in Sydney on 11 and 12 December 2006.

The conference program covered topics ranging from managing the spectrum, satellite spectrum issues, wireless access services, meteorological and defence requirements, television and the 'digital dividend', emerging trends and the future of spectrum reform. Speakers were drawn from ACMA and other government bodies, as well as from industry.

Conference presentations are on the ACMA website at www.acma.gov.au (go to About ACMA: ACMA's role & activities > Conferences & events).
