UNESCO NATIONAL SEMINAR ON TEACHING AND RESEARCH ON HUMAN RIGHTS

The Australian National Commission for UNESCO is sponsoring a National Seminar on Teaching and Research on Human Rights at Tertiary and Adult Education levels to be held in the Faculty of Law of the University of Sydney on 20-22 June, 1980. The Organizing Committee of the Seminar consists of Prof. A.E.-S. Tay, Ms. Dierdre O'Connor of Macquarie University and Mr. Graeme Connelly of the University of New South Wales. Speakers will include Messrs. Peter Bailey and S.I. Benn, Prof. A.R. Blackshield, Senator Gareth Evans, Prof. Agnes Heller, the Hon. Mr. Justice R.M. Hope and Mr. Justice M. Kirby, Professors Lauchlan Chipman, Eugene Kamenka and Julius Kovesi, Dr. J. Kleinig, Professors J. McCloskey, R. Sackville, Peter Singer, Julius Stone, A.E.-S. Tay and C.G. Weeramantry and Mr. E.G. Whitlam. The number of participants has had to be restricted to 70 from all States of Australia, and the Seminar is, therefore, by invitation. Those engaged in relevant teaching and research and interested in attending may enquire from Prof. A.E.-S. Tay, Department of Jurisprudence, Faculty of Law, 173-175 Phillip Street, Sydney, N.S.W. 2000 or Miss Linda Jones, Australian National Commission for UNESCO, Department of Education, 6th Floor, MLC Tower, Woden, A.C.T. 2606.

ISAAC MARKS MEMORIAL LECTURE BY PROFESSOR STONE

Emeritus Professor Julius Stone is at present in America as Distinguished Professor of Jurisprudence and International Law, University of California, Hastings College of Law. Professor Stone delivered the Inaugural Isaac Marks Memorial Lecture at the University of Arizona College of Law, Tucson, Arizona, on 4 February, 1980. He spoke on "Equal Protection and the Search for Justice".

VISIT TO THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

The Vice-Chancellor of the A.N.U., Prof. D.A. Low, three representatives of the Australian Academy of the Humanities (Professors Eugene Kamenka, Leonie Kramer and Bernard Smith) and three representatives of the Academy of Social Sciences in Australia (Professors J.L. Dillon, N. Feather and A.G.L. Shaw) will visit China from 12 May to 2 June, 1980, at the invitation of the Chinese Academy of the Social Sciences. They expect to visit academic institutions and to discuss academic contacts and exchanges between the two countries. Legal Philosophy is one of the subjects in which members of the Australian delegation have expressed an interest.

TANNER LECTURE BY PROFESSOR PASSMORE

Emeritus Professor J.A. Passmore, who is now A.N.U. University Fellow working in the History of Ideas Unit in the A.N.U., has been invited to give the Tanner Lecture in the University of Cambridge in November this year. He will speak on Art as a Source of Truth. There will be one lecture followed by two seminars.
