Admin Review is a quarterly bulletin concerned with informing government, private organisations and individuals about developments in Federal administrative law and procedure. It is produced under the auspices of the Administrative Review Council but the views expressed in the bulletin are not necessarily the views of the Council or of any of its members. Although every care is taken in the preparation of the publication, no liability is accepted in respect of matters published in it. The purpose of the bulletin is to provide general information and not legal advice. Readers should check carefully the detail of legislation, cases and other material included in the bulletin. All inquiries concerning the bulletin, other than subscription inquiries, should be directed to the Editor (address on front cover). Subscription inquiries should be directed to the Australian Government Publishing Service.
