

professional interests and that it was not intended to be a lobbyist organisation or confined to the legal profession.

The Institute was formally established in July 1989. Mr Geoff Kolts, OBE, QC was elected the inaugural President. Mr Kolts was previously First Parliamentary Counsel and was Commonwealth Ombudsman until he retired from public service in 1987 to become a private legal consultant. He was one of the original members of the Administrative Review Council, and has been closely involved in the new administrative law since its inception. Expressions of interest and inquiries about the Institute should be addressed to the Secretary, P.O. Box 1927, Canberra, ACT 2601.

AAT electoral jurisdiction

The Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Affairs, which had been inquiring into the conduct of the 1987 federal election and the 1988 referenda, has published its report on the federal election.

During the inquiry the Australian Electoral Commission drew attention to the fact that presently in joint roll States the decision of a Divisional Returning Officer to remove a person's name from the electoral roll could be reviewed by both State courts of summary jurisdiction and the AAT, depending on whether the returning officer's actions affected a person's state or federal enrolment. It suggested that all questions of enrolment in joint roll States be reviewed by Magistrates Courts.

The Parliamentary Committee, however, thought that the AAT offered greater potential for uniformity in decision-making and was better equipped to deal with complex applications in a more flexible manner. It recommended that the Minister for Administrative Services approach state governments with a view to having the review of all such decisions undertaken by the AAT.

-----

R E C E N T P U B L I C A T I O N S

-----

Anon.

'Disputing DSS decisions: procedures for review', Law Society Journal, 27,5, June 1989:19-20

Anon.

Judicial review in Australia: the courts and the Constitution, Lane Cove: Thesis Publications, 1988

Beloff, M.J.

'Pitch, pool, rink...court? Judicial review in the sporting world', Public Law, Spring 1989:95-110

- Davies, Geoff
'Judges responsible for survival of civil trial system: change needed to meet competition', Australian Law News, 24,5, June 1989:12-14
- Errera, R.
'Publication of a report by the government - scope of judicial review of decision to publish', Public Law, Spring 1989:175-8
- Gaze, B.
'Protection of privacy', Legal Service Bulletin, 14,2, April 1989:82-85
- Greenleaf, G.
'The expression "personal affairs" corrupts privacy protection', The Australian Law Journal, 63,8, August 1989:562-564
- Mallam, P.
'Freedom of information comes to New South Wales', Law Society Journal, 27,7, August 1989:62-3,66-7
- Marx, P.
'Judicial review of licence grant decisions by the Australian Broadcasting Tribunal', Communications Law Bulletin, 9,2, May 1989:12-13
- O'Brien, D.
'Judicial review in the Commonwealth - proposals for reform', Law Institute Journal, 63,8, August 1989:718-21
- Oda, H.
'Judicial review of administration in the U.S.S.R', Public Law, Spring 1989:111-30
- Pearl, D.
'English family law and the immigrant population: a new challenge', Law in context, 6,1, 1988:50-60
- Riley, T.B.
'International trends in government information dissemination', Freedom of Information Review, 19, February 1989:2-5

Schwartz, B.

'Fashioning an administrative law system',,
Administrative Law Review, 40,3, Summer 1988:415-432

Todd, R.K.

'Independent review of administrative decisions on the merits - successes and strains in the Australian experience', paper presented at the 11th Lawasia Conference, Hong Kong, 18 September 1989

Walsh, B.A.

'Judicial review of dismissal from employment: coherence or confusion?', Public Law, Spring 1989:131-55

The following papers from the May 1987 seminar 'Administrative law: retrospect and prospect'), are now published in the Canberra Bulletin of Public Administration, 58, April 1989:

Barnes, J.

'The politics of administrative law: a new phase?'

Bayne, P.

'The Commonwealth system of non-judicial review'

Bell, R.

'The costs and benefits of freedom of information'

Bennett, D.

'The assimilation of judicial review to review on the merits'

Brennan, G.

'Reflections',

Brennan, T.

'The hidden dimensions of administrative law: first tier and internal review, Part 2'

Brazil, P.

'1987 Administrative Law Seminar'

Carney, T.

'Cloaking the bureaucratic dagger?: administrative law in the welfare state'

Cashman, P.

'The price of administrative justice'

Chadwick, P.

'The costs and benefits of FOI'

Crock, M.

'The impact of the new administrative law on migrants'

Curtis, L.

'Crossing the frontier between law and administration'

Gill, D.

'Formality and informality in the Administrative Appeals Tribunal'

Goldring, J.

'The values inherent in judicial review'

Griffiths, J.

'The price of administrative justice'

Jeffries, B.

'Rule making, consultation and public participation: the right way and the wrong way'

- Kyrrou, E.
'Administrative law: a sunrise industry for the legal profession?'
- Mason, A.
'That twentieth century growth industry, judicial or tribunal review'
- O'Brien, D.
'Tribunals and public policy: what decisions are suitable for review?'
- Pearce, D.
'The fading of the vision splendid?'
- Rose, A.
'Judicial review and public policy: a comment'
- Rowlands, A.
'Crossing the frontier between law and administration'
- Sassella, M.
'Administrative law in the welfare state: impact on the Department of Social Security'
- Selby, H.
'Ombudsman Inc: a bullish stock with a bare performance'
- Skehill, S.
'The hidden dimension of administrative law: internal and first tier review, Part 1'
- Tomasic, R.
'Formalised consultation, delegated legislation and guidelines: "new" directions in Australian administrative law?'
- Volker, D.
'The effect of administrative law reforms: primary level decision-making'
- Walsh, P.
'Equities and inequities in administrative law'
- Wilcox, M.
'Judicial review and public policy'
- Wingett, I.
'The nursing homes program: a case study in administrative law'

-----
P E R S O N A L I A
-----

---

Administrative Review Council

---

Dr Cheryl Saunders, President of the Council, was appointed to a Personal Chair as Professor of Law at the University of Melbourne on 7 August 1989.