Editor's note

“It is important for the journal
to evolve and grow.
Tina will bring a new and fresh approach to the journal.”

This will be my last Editorial. From next issue Tina Cockburn will be the Managing Editor.

It is important for the journal to evolve and grow. Tina will bring a new and fresh approach to the journal.

Tina is a lecturer at the Queensland University of Technology. She has been an active member of the Plaintiff Editorial Committee and a contributor of articles to the journal. It has been a great pleasure to be a part of the growth of our journal and I am sure I leave it in good hands.

This issue deals with motor vehicle accidents – possibly the area that is most common to the members of APLA. It also seems to be the area that Legislators love to tinker with. There is a review of current issues in each of the State systems. One of the few certainties in injury law is that what is an issue in one jurisdiction will soon be playing in a parliament near you.

Bye.
