

the commonwealth bank young lawyers' inaugural assembly

Nigel Polak, John Corcoran - LIV Vice-President and Victoria Strong - 2001 Chair, Young Lawyers' Section Discussion groups...

The Young Lawyers' Section held its first Annual Assembly in November 2000 at the Lancemore Hill Conference Centre in Kilmore. Delegates attending the Assembly included representatives from the Young Lawyers' Section, NSW Young Lawyers, Victorian Women Lawyers, the Aboriginal Legal Service and various Country and Suburban Law Associations.

The Assembly was a great success and will now be held each year in a picturesque location outside of Melbourne. The Assembly provided an open forum within which Young Lawyers' Section members and guest representatives could discuss common issues affecting young lawyers, working in both CBD and regional practices.

Following the Assembly, delegates were encouraged to enjoy a weekend away and participate in a day tour to some of the local wineries and attractions. The Inaugural Assembly 2000 was proudly sponsored by the Commonwealth Bank.

Katie Coghlan - 2001 Chair, Professional Development Committee, Radhika Kanhai - 2001 Vice-Chair, Young Lawyers' Section and Martin Smith - General Manager, LIV.

Ross Becroft - Co-Chair 2000 Editorial Committee, Anthony Beck-Godoy - Co-Chair 2000 Professional Development Committee, Richard Kervin - 2000 Chair, Young Lawyers Section & other guests

Radhika Kanhai - 2001 Vice-Chair and Victoria Strong - 2001 Chair Young Lawyers' Section.

Ian Dunn, CEO - Law Institute of Victoria

Planning ahead for 2001