Right: Sally Bartley from James Bennett Library Services. Red noses were the order of the day on Friday, 2 September - delegates donned and even dangled red noses, all to aid research into infant death syndrome.
