"THERE'S ALWAYS SOMEONE LOOKING FOR A BOOK ON IT."

No matter how bright they are, most students have trouble writing letters and most books on the subject are woefully out of date. There is one, however, that gives practical, easy-to-follow advice on how to write all kinds of letters, from letters to the editor to love letters.

It's called "The complete guide to letter-writing." It's not on your shelves just yet, but it is available now at main post offices for just $5.95.

So next time you're asked for a book on letter writing, you'll know what to recommend. "The complete guide to letter-writing," from main post offices.
