AUSTRALIAN LIBRARY AND INFORMATION ASSOCIATION - HONORARY AWARDS

Nominations are now being called for the following honorary awards of the Australian Library and Information Association.

HCL ANDERSON AWARD

The General Council may confer the HCL Anderson Award on any person who is a professional member of the Association or who holds an overseas qualification in librarianship or archives, which is recognised as a professional qualification by a library association or archives association in the country concerned, and who has rendered outstanding service to librarianship or to the library profession in Australia, or to ALIA, or to the theory or practice of librarianship.

REDMOND BARRY AWARD

The General Council may confer the Redmond Barry Award on any person who is not eligible to be a professional member of the Association and who is not employed in a library, who in the opinion of General Council, has rendered outstanding service to the promotion of a library or libraries; ALIA; the theory or practice of librarianship, or to an associated field such as bibliography.

ELLINOR ARCHER AWARD

The General Council may confer the Ellinor Archer Award on any person employed or who has been employed in libraries, who is not eligible for Associateship of ALIA, who has rendered outstanding service: to libraries, the promotion of a library, or libraries; the theory or practice of librarianship or to an associated field such as systems, conservation, management or bibliography.

LETTER OF RECOGNITION

The General Council may on the recommendation of the Honorary Awards Committee present a letter of recognition to a person, institution or organisation, who/which has rendered a significant, specific service to: a library or libraries, ALIA; or to the promotion or development of libraries or library science or who has over a period demonstrated significant services well over the call of duty in these fields.

Nominations

Members and Divisions of the Association may make a recommendation that an honorary award be conferred by writing confidentially to the Convener ALIA Honorary Awards Committee, c/- PO Box E441, Queen Victoria Terrace, ACT 2600.

Confidentiality

It is essential that nominees should NOT be aware that they are nominated for an award. Nominations are considered by the Honorary Awards Committee and Council in committee, and details are published only when the nomination is successful.

Divisions of ALIA are particularly asked not to note nominations in their agenda papers or minutes. Disclosure of such details can prejudice a nomination.

Nomination Forms

Nomination forms and further information on each of the awards may be obtained from the Membership and Divisional Services Manager, ALIA PO Box E441, Queen Victoria Terrace, ACT 2600.

Nomination for the HCL Anderson Award, Redmond Barry Award and Ellinor Archer Award close 28 February 1990. Nomination for Letters of Recognition may be made at any time, and will be considered at the first available meeting of the Honorary Awards Committee.
