

Board of Education

Election of two members by the membership of the Association

Call for nominations

Membership of the Board of Education is as follows:

- three professional members elected by the Professional Committee of General Council;
- seven members, of whom at least four must be professional members, elected by the membership-at-large of the Association;
- the President of the Association ex officio;
- the Executive Director as a non-voting executive member (By-law 24).

The terms of office of three members of the Board end on 31 December 1992. Two members are now to be elected by the membership of the Association to hold office until 31 December 1995. The Professional Committee of General Council will elect the third member.

Nominations are hereby called for the two positions. Nominees must be personal financial members of the Association, however they need not be professional members.

Nominations shall be:

- in writing;
- signed by two personal financial members of the Association;
- countersigned by the nominee;
- accompanied by a curriculum vitae (giving full details of academic and professional qualifications) and a statement of concerns. The curriculum vitae should be arranged under the headings of Present Position, Previous Positions and Professional Activities. The curriculum vitae and the statement of concerns should each not be more than 100 words.

Nominations close at 5pm on 1 September 1992 and should be sent to the Executive Director, Australian Library and Information Association, PO Box E441, Queen Victoria Terrace, ACT 2600.

Board members retiring on 31 December 1992 are Jean Bailey, Joyce Kirk and Vicki Williamson. The retiring members are eligible for re-election.

Continuing members of the Board are Angela Bridgland, Margaret Findlay, Christine Goodacre, Anne Hazell, Christine Henderson, Michael Middleton and Kay Poustie.

A musical offering

THE BRITISH Council recently presented music scores to the Departments of Music of three universities:

- to the University of New South Wales The English Madrigalists.

Ed. Edmund Fellowes, Thurston Dart. Edward Elgar: complete edition. Eds Jerrold Northrop Moore and Christopher Kent. Henry Purcell: collected works. Ed by Purcell Society. London, Novello.

- to Griffith University, Queensland conservatorium of Music; A collection of scores by Peter Maxwell Davies.
- to the University of Western Australia; A microfilm collection of the History of musical instruments: manuals, tutors and methods, tracing the evolution of modern instruments from the baroque, through classical, to modern times. ■

Working in libraries

THE ACT BRANCH had a stand at Careers '92, held at Bruce Indoor Stadium on July 23-24 for Years 10+ in Canberra. Leanne Ford and Systems Librarian, Julia Mitchell from the ACT Library Service demonstrated an interesting new CD ROM produced by Microsoft, called 'Bookshelf'. Robert Williams of Simpac computer Systems is seen here at the computer with Kate McGlynn, one of the volunteers on the stand. A number of

The ACT stand

ACT librarians, HO staff, teacher-librarians and technicians helped Marie Sexton, who organised the ALIA participation. Many enquiries were received about training courses available, and inquirers seemed to be really interested in library work as an interesting career. Over 70 exhibitors from educational and training institutions, ACT employers and professional bodies were involved in the exhibition which was attended by over 6 000 students and parents.
