Sydney Exposures

Through the eyes of Sam Hood and his studio, 1925–1950

(Sydney, State Library of NSW, 1991. 128 pp. ISBN 0 7305-8674 X pb; -8896 3 hb)

THIS delightful book of photographs of real people doing everyday things is a social and historical document of the highest order. Drawn from a collection of more than 33 000 photographs that the State Library of NSW bought almost twenty years ago, the book accompanies an exhibition in the Library's Galleries. The subjects of the 118 illustrations are caught at the hairdresser, in the gym or at the beach, getting married, being evicted or sitting in an overcrowded classroom... The book is available in paperback ($24.95) or hardback ($34.95) from the Library shop or good bookshops across Australia.
