WA Special Librarian Award

Call for nominations

The WA Special Libraries Committee is offering an annual award for outstanding contribution to the library profession by a Special Librarian.

Nominations are called for the WA Special Librarian Award.

Award criteria

1. A willingness to share professional expertise and to participate in formal and informal networking activities.
2. Evidence of good management practices.
3. Demonstration of successful promotion of the library/information service resulting in the achievement of a high profile within the parent organisation.

Rules of nomination

1. Only members of the ALIA Special Libraries Section (WA Group) are eligible.
2. No current member of the Specials Committee may be nominated.
3. Each nominee must have a proposer and seconder, with the consent of the nominee.
4. The proposer and seconder must submit a brief written resume about the nominee, addressing the criteria.
5. Selected nominees may be asked to attend an interview with the Special Librarian Award Committee. The sub-committee comprises of three members of the Committee of whom one is the President.
6. The decision of the Committee will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
7. The award will be presented at the annual Special Librarian Award function. A perpetual trophy provided by RAECO, and an individual award will be presented. Presentation of the award will be reported in the issue of the Australian Special Libraries, inCite and Biblia nearest to the date of presentation.
