CSU AWARD WINNERS

O utstanding graduates were recognised at the graduation ceremonies for Charles Sturt University's School of Information Studies late last year.

From left to right: Professor Philip Hider, Head of School; Colleen Sippo; Natalie Spain; Hyacinth Steele; Georgena Bowmer; Jutta May; Janette Pelosi; Erin Davey; and Dr Asim Qayyum, Associate Course Director and IIM representative. Photo credit: Tehani Croft, Lecturer.

In August and December 2016, Charles Sturt University's (CSU) School of Information Studies held its graduation ceremonies. The occasion marked the beginning of the next stage in the lives of the graduates. We celebrated with those students who, throughout their studies, demonstrated an exceptional standard of work and commitment in our information studies courses. Listed below are those exceptional students, the CSU prize winners for 2016.

ALIA Student Award – Erin Davey | Bachelor of Information Studies (Information and Knowledge Management)

ALIA Student Award – Ruth Butcher | Graduate Diploma in Information Studies

ALIA Student Award – Amanda Lucas | Master of Education (Teacher Librarianship)

ALIA Student Award – Janette Pelosi | Master of Information Studies (Leadership) Australian Society of Archivists, Margaret Jennings Award – Colleen Sippo | Bachelor of Information Studies (Records and Archives)

Institute for Information Management Prize – Jutta May | Master of Information Studies (Information and Knowledge Management) SAGE Research Prize – Elizabeth McLoughlin | Master of Information Studies

The following students received a Dean's Award of Excellence

Georgena Bowmer | Bachelor of Information Studies (Librarianship) Jennifer Pendlebury | Master of Information Studies (Librarianship) Hyacinth Steele | Master of Education (Knowledge Networks and Digital Innovation) Lea Morton | Master of Education (Teacher Librarianship) Natalie Spain | Master of Education (Teacher Librarianship)

Congratulations to all our 2016 prize winners!