8. Regulation 13 of the Lottery and Gaming Regulations is repealed and the following regulation inserted in its stead:—

“13.—(1.) A club using a totalizator shall not pay a dividend, or permit a dividend to be paid, except in accordance with this regulation.

Payment of dividend.

“ (2.) A club using a totalizator may, at the discretion of the committee of the club, pay in respect of a race—

- (a) a first dividend only;
- (b) if five, six or seven horses start in the race, a first dividend and a second dividend; or
- (c) if at least eight horses start in the race, a first dividend, a second dividend and a third dividend.

“ (3.) Where in a race a dead heat occurs and, but for the dead heat, a second dividend but no third dividend would be payable, the total amount payable as dividends on a horse coming first or second in the race shall be determined by—

(a) allocating the money available for payment of dividends as follows:—

- (i) where two or more horses dead heat for first place— one hundred per centum in respect of the horses coming first;
- (ii) where two or more horses dead heat for second place— seventy-five per centum in respect of the horse coming first and twenty-five per centum in respect of the horses coming second; and

(b) dividing the amount so allocated for horses coming first or second in the race by the number of horses coming first or second place in the race, respectively.

“ (4.) Where in a race a dead heat occurs and, but for the dead heat a third dividend would be payable, the total amount payable as dividends on a horse coming first, second or third in the race shall be determined by—

(a) allocating the money available for payment of dividends as follows:—

- (i) where three or more horses dead heat for first place— one hundred per centum in respect of the horses coming first;

- (ii) where two horses dead heat for first place—eighty per centum in respect of the horses coming first and twenty per centum in respect of the horse or horses coming third;
- (iii) where two or more horses dead heat for second-place—sixty per centum in respect of the horse coming first and forty per centum in respect of the horses coming second;
- (iv) where two or more horses dead heat for third place—sixty per centum in respect of the horse coming first, twenty per centum in respect of the horse coming second and twenty per centum in respect of the horses coming third; and

(b) dividing the amount so allocated for horses coming first, second or third in the race by the number of horses coming first, second or third place in the race, respectively.

“(5.) Subject to sub-regulations (3.) and (4.) of this regulation, the total amount payable as dividends on a horse coming first, second or third in a race shall be determined by allocating the money available for payment of dividends as follows:—

- (a) where a first dividend only is payable—one hundred per centum in respect of the horse coming first;
- (b) where a second dividend but no third dividend is payable—seventy-five per centum in respect of the horse coming first and twenty-five per centum in respect of the horse coming second; and
- (c) where a third dividend is payable—sixty per centum in respect of the horse coming first, twenty per centum in respect of the horse coming second and twenty per centum in respect of the horse coming third.

“(6.) Immediately after the dividends payable in respect of each race are known, the club shall post those dividends, or cause them to be posted, on a board outside each totalizator building.

[Penalty—Twenty pounds.”.]
