- “unregistered firearm” means a firearm which is not registered under this Ordinance.

PART II.—ADMINISTRATION.

Registrar, &c.,
of firearms.

7.—(1.) The person for the time being holding the office of, or acting as, Superintendent of the Northern Territory Police Force shall be the Registrar of Firearms under this Ordinance.

(2.) Such members as are appointed in writing by the Registrar, and every member whilst in charge of a police station, shall be a deputy registrar of firearms.

8.—(1.) The Registrar shall keep a Register of Firearms in the prescribed form in which he shall enter particulars of all firearms registered pursuant to this Ordinance. Register of firearms.

(2.) Each deputy registrar shall keep a register in the prescribed form in which he shall enter particulars of all firearms registered by him pursuant to this Ordinance.

PART III.—REGISTRATION OF FIREARMS.

9.—(1.) Subject to this section, the registrar and any deputy registrar, upon receipt of a fee of Two shillings and sixpence, may register a firearm produced to him for registration if he is satisfied that the firearm is not owned by a person who is under the age of sixteen years, is a ward within the meaning of the Welfare Ordinance 1953-1955, is an aboriginal within the meaning of the Aboriginals Ordinance 1918-1954, has been convicted of an offence against this Ordinance and sentenced to any term of imprisonment for that offence or has been convicted of an offence, otherwise than under this Ordinance, arising out of or in connexion with his possession or use of a firearm and sentenced to any term of imprisonment for that offence, and that the firearm is safe or fit for use. Registration of firearms.

(2.) The Registrar may, upon receiving a recommendation from the Director of Welfare, in respect of a particular ward, or from the Director of Native Affairs in respect of a particular aboriginal, register a firearm owned by that ward or aboriginal, as the case may be.

(3.) Registration of a firearm shall be effected by entering the prescribed particulars relating to the firearm in a prescribed form of register.

(4.) Upon registering a firearm—

(a) the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration in the prescribed form to the person by whom, or on whose behalf, the registration is obtained; and

(b) a deputy registrar shall—

(i) issue a certificate of registration in the prescribed form to the person by whom, or on whose behalf, the registration is obtained; and

(ii) forthwith send a copy of the entry made by him in his register to the Registrar.

Cancellation of registration
of firearms.

10 —(1.) Where the Registrar is satisfied—

- (a) that the owner of a registered firearm is a person under the age of sixteen years;
 - (b) that the owner of a registered firearm is a ward within the meaning of the Welfare Ordinance 1953-1955, whom the Director of Welfare considers should not be the owner of a firearm;
 - (c) that the owner of a registered firearm is an aboriginal within the meaning of the Aboriginals Ordinance 1918-1954, whom the Director of Native Affairs considers should not be the owner of a firearm;
 - (d) that the owner of a firearm has been convicted of an offence against this Ordinance and sentenced to any term of imprisonment for that offence;
 - (e) that the owner of a firearm has been convicted of an offence, otherwise than under this Ordinance, arising out of or in connexion with his possession or use of a firearm and sentenced to any term of imprisonment for that offence; or
 - (f) that a firearm is not safe or fit for use,
- he may cancel the registration of that firearm.

(2.) When the Registrar cancels the registration of a firearm—

- (a) he shall forthwith cause notice in writing of the cancellation to be served on the owner of the firearm either personally or by post; and
- (b) enter particulars of the cancellation in the Register of Firearms.

Certificate of Registrar, &c.,
prima facie
proof.

11.—(1.) A certificate signed by the Registrar stating that on a particular day—

- (a) a particular firearm was registered; or
- (b) a particular firearm was not registered

shall, in any proceedings under or arising out of this Ordinance, be prima facie proof of the fact stated in the certificate, without proof of the Registrar's signature.

(2.) A certificate signed by a deputy registrar stating that on a particular day a particular firearm was registered shall, in any proceedings under or arising out of this Ordinance, be prima facie proof of the fact stated in the certificate upon proof of the signature of the deputy registrar.

12.—(1.) A person shall not own, be in possession of or carry an unregistered firearm. Unregistered firearms.

Penalty: For a first offence, Fifty pounds or imprisonment for one month; for a second or subsequent offence, Two hundred pounds or imprisonment for four months.

(2.) In any proceedings for an offence against this section, it shall be a good defence if it is proved that the defendant purchased or lawfully came into possession of the unregistered firearm not more than two days before the date upon which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

PART IV.—PISTOLS.

13.—(1.) A person who wishes to purchase or hire a pistol may apply to the Registrar for a permit to purchase or hire a pistol. Application for permit to purchase or hire a pistol.

(2.) The Registrar or a member, acting with the written authority of the Registrar, if he is satisfied that an applicant for a permit to purchase or hire a pistol is a person to whom a pistol licence may be granted pursuant to section 19 of this Ordinance, may grant to the applicant a permit in the prescribed form to purchase or hire a pistol, as the case may be.

(3.) A permit—

- (a) entitles the person in whose favour it is issued to purchase or hire a pistol, as the case may be; and
- (b) remains in force until the person in whose favour it is issued purchases or hires a pistol, as the case may be, or until the expiration of seven days after the date upon which it is granted, whichever first occurs.

14. A person who purchases or hires a pistol shall forthwith deliver his permit to the person from whom he purchases or hires the pistol, as the case may be. Purchaser of pistol to surrender permit.

Penalty: One hundred pounds.

15. A person who purchases or hires a pistol shall, within twenty-four hours after purchasing or hiring the pistol, deliver to the Registrar, or forward by registered post to the Registrar at Darwin, notice in the prescribed form containing particulars of the pistol and the name and address of the person from whom he purchased or hired the pistol, as the case may be. Purchaser or hirer of pistol to give notice to Registrar.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Vendors, &c., of pistol to require delivery of permit.

16. A person shall not sell by retail, by auction or by private sale, or let on hire a pistol to any person unless at the time of the sale or hire the person to whom the pistol is sold or hired produces and delivers to the seller a permit to purchase or hire the pistol.

Penalty: For a first offence, Fifty pounds or imprisonment for one month; for a second or subsequent offence, Two hundred pounds or imprisonment for four months.

Permit to be returned to Registrar.

17. A person to whom a permit is delivered pursuant to the last preceding section shall, within twenty-four hours after receiving the permit, deliver it to the Registrar or forward it by registered post to the Registrar at Darwin.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Person not to own, &c., pistol
without licence.

18.—(1.) A person shall not own or have in his possession a pistol unless he is the holder of a pistol licence in respect of that pistol.

Penalty: For a first offence, One hundred pounds or imprisonment for two months; for a second or subsequent offence, Three hundred pounds or imprisonment for six months.

(2.) A person shall not carry a pistol unless he is the holder of a pistol licence in respect of that pistol and is carrying that licence with him.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(3.) In any proceedings for an offence against this section it shall be a good defence if it is proved that the pistol in respect of which the offence is alleged to have been committed was purchased or hired by the defendant, not more than two days before the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed, pursuant to a permit which was in force at the time when the pistol was purchased or hired, as the case may be.

Application for pistol licence to be made to Registrar.

19.—(1.) An application for a pistol licence or for the renewal of a pistol licence shall be made to the Registrar.

(2.) The Registrar, if he is satisfied—

(a) that the applicant—

(i) is a person who has a substantial reason for requiring a pistol;

(ii) is a person who can reasonably be permitted to have in his possession, to use and to carry a pistol without danger to the public safety or to the peace;

- (iii) is a person of or over the age of twenty-one years;
- (iv) is not a ward within the meaning of the Welfare Ordinance 1953-1955 or an aboriginal within the meaning of the Aboriginals Ordinance 1918-1954;
- (v) has not been convicted of an offence against this Ordinance and sentenced to any term of imprisonment for that offence; and
- (vi) has not been convicted of an offence otherwise than under this Ordinance, arising out of or in connexion with his possession or use of a firearm, and sentenced to any term of imprisonment for that offence; and

(b) that the pistol in respect of which the application for a licence is made is safe and fit for use, may, upon receipt of a fee of Five shillings, issue or renew a pistol licence in the prescribed form.

(3.) A pistol licence applies only in respect of one pistol and authorizes the person to whom it is issued to have in his possession, to carry and to use that pistol.

(4.) A pistol licence, unless previously revoked, continues in force until the thirty-first day of January next following the date upon which it is issued or renewed. See 4/67

proof.

22. A certificate signed by the Registrar stating that, on a particular day—

- (a) a particular person was the holder of a pistol licence in respect of a particular pistol;
- (b) a particular person was not the holder of a pistol licence in respect of a particular pistol; or
- (c) no pistol licence was in force in respect of a particular pistol, shall, in any proceedings under or arising out of this Ordinance, be prima facie proof of the facts stated in the certificate, without proof of the Registrar's signature.

PART V.—GUN DEALERS.

Gun dealer's
licence.

23. A person shall not deal in firearms unless he is the holder of a gun dealer's licence.

Penalty: Two hundred pounds.

Application for
gun dealer's
licence.

24.—(1.) A person may apply in the prescribed form to the Registrar for a gun dealer's licence or for the renewal of a gun dealer's licence.

(2.) The Registrar may, if he is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to carry on the trade or business of dealing in firearms, and upon receipt of a fee of One pound, issue or renew a gun dealer's licence in the prescribed form.

(3.) A licence issued or renewed under this section continues in force until the thirty-first day of December next following the date upon which it is issued or renewed, unless it is sooner revoked.

25.—(1.) Where the Registrar is satisfied—

- (a) that the holder of a gun dealer's licence fraudulently obtained the issue of the licence; or
- (b) that the holder of a gun dealer's licence is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence, he may revoke that licence.

Revocation of gun dealer's
licence.

(2.) Where the Registrar revokes a licence under this section—

- (a) he shall cause notice in writing of the revocation to be served forthwith on the person who held the licence either personally or by post; and
- (b) enter particulars of the revocation in the Register of Gun Dealers' Licences.

26. The Registrar shall keep a Register of Gun Dealers' Licences in the prescribed form in which he shall enter particulars of every gun dealer's licence issued under this Ordinance.

Register of gun dealers'
licences.

27. A certificate signed by the Registrar stating that, on a particular day—

- (a) a particular person was the holder of a gun dealer's licence; or
- (b) a particular person was not the holder of a gun dealer's licence, shall, in any proceedings under or arising out of this Ordinance, be prima facie proof of the facts stated in the certificate, without proof of the Registrar's signature.

Certificate
by Registrar respecting gun
dealer's licence
prima facie
proof.

28. The holder of a gun dealer's licence—

- (a) shall keep records containing such particulars as are prescribed; and
- (b) shall furnish to the Registrar such returns and particulars as are prescribed.

Gun dealers
to keep records, &c.

Penalty: One hundred pounds.

PART VI.—CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION, LICENCES, ETC.

29.—(1.) Where the Registrar cancels the registration of a firearm, the owner of the firearm shall, within two days of the date upon which he receives notice of the cancellation, and

Cancelled
registration certificates or licences to be returned.

whether or not he institutes an appeal under the next succeeding section, deliver the certificate of registration of the firearm to the Registrar or forward it by registered post to the Registrar at Darwin.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(2.) Where the Registrar revokes a pistol licence or a gun dealer's licence, the person to whom the licence was issued shall, within two days of the date upon which he receives notice of the cancellation and whether or not he institutes an appeal under the next succeeding section, deliver the licence to the Registrar or forward it by registered post to the Registrar at Darwin.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Appeal against Registrar's decision, &c.

30. Where the Registrar—

- (a) cancels the registration of a firearm or refuses to register a firearm;
- (b) fails, within a period of fourteen days from and including the date upon which application is made to him in that behalf, to register a firearm;
- (c) revokes a licence or refuses to issue or to renew a licence; or
- (d) fails, within a period of fourteen days from and including the date upon which application is made to him in that behalf, to issue or to renew a licence, the person aggrieved may, within the time and in the manner prescribed, appeal to the Court against the cancellation, revocation, refusal or failure, as the case may be.

Powers of Court.

31.—(1.) Upon the hearing of an appeal under the last preceding section, the Court—

- (a) if satisfied that the Registrar, on reasonable grounds and in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, cancelled the registration of a firearm, refused to register a firearm, revoked a licence or refused to grant or to renew a licence, as the case may be, shall dismiss the appeal;
- (b) if not satisfied that the Registrar on reasonable grounds and in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance cancelled the registration of a firearm, refused to register a firearm, revoked a licence or refused to grant or to renew a licence, as the case may be, shall allow the appeal and direct the Registrar to reinstate the registration, and to issue a fresh certificate of registration, of the firearm, to register the firearm, to reinstate the licence and to issue a fresh licence or to issue or to renew a licence, as the case may be; or

- (c) may approve of the Registrar's failure to deal with the application or direct him to deal with the application within such time as the Court sees fit, and may make such order as to costs as it sees fit.

(2.) The decision of the Court on an appeal under this section is final.

32. When the Registrar cancels the registration of or refuses to register a firearm, the person in whose possession the firearm then is—

Disposal of firearms where registration refused or cancelled.

- (a) if an appeal is made to the Court pursuant to section thirty of this Ordinance, shall deposit the firearm with the clerk of the Court; or
- (b) shall dispose of the firearm in such manner and within such time as are prescribed.

33. When the Registrar revokes or refuses to issue or to renew a pistol licence, the person who then has possession of the pistol to which the licence relates—

Disposal of pistol where licence refused or revoked.

- (a) if an appeal is made to the Court pursuant to section thirty of this Ordinance, shall deposit the pistol with the clerk of the Court; or
- (b) shall dispose of the pistol in such manner and within such time as are prescribed.

34. When the Registrar revokes or refuses to issue or to renew a gun dealer's licence, the person who previously held, who applied for or who was refused a licence or renewal of his licence, as the case may be—

Disposal of firearms where gun dealer's licence refused or revoked.

- (a) if an appeal is made to the Court pursuant to section thirty of this Ordinance, shall deposit all firearms then in his possession with the clerk of the Court; or
- (b) shall dispose of all firearms then in his possession in such manner and within such time as are prescribed.

PART VII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Use of silencers.

35. A person shall not use or carry a silencer.

Penalty: Two hundred pounds or imprisonment for four months.

Possession of silencers.

36. A person shall not have a silencer in his possession.

Penalty: One hundred pounds or imprisonment for two months.

Owner of firearm to give notice where address changed or firearm sold,
&c.

37. The owner of a firearm which is registered under this Ordinance—

- (a) shall, if he changes his address, furnish particulars of the change to the Registrar in such manner and within such time as are prescribed; and
- (b) shall, if he sells or otherwise disposes of the firearm, give notice to the Registrar, in such manner and within such time as are prescribed, stating the name and address of the person to whom he sold or otherwise disposed of the firearm.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Holder of licence to notify change of address.

38. The holder of a licence who changes his address shall furnish particulars of the change to the Registrar in such manner and within such time as are prescribed.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Powers of police.

39. Any member may, without warrant—

- (a) require a person who, at the time of the demand, is carrying a pistol, to produce the licence in respect of that pistol and to give full particulars of his correct name and address;
- (b) require a person, who at the time of the demand is in possession of a firearm, to give full particulars of his correct name and address and to produce the certificate of registration of that firearm at a police station within forty-eight hours after the time when the demand is made;
- (c) stop, search and for that purpose detain—
 - (i) a person whom he suspects, on reasonable grounds, is in possession of an unregistered firearm or an unlicensed pistol; and

- (ii) any vehicle or conveyance in or upon which he suspects, on reasonable grounds, there is an unregistered firearm or an unlicensed pistol;
- (d) arrest a person whom he suspects, on reasonable grounds, of having committed or of committing an offence against this Ordinance and who refuses or fails, on being so required, to give full particulars of his correct name and address;
- (e) seize any pistol which, on reasonable grounds, he suspects to be an unlicensed pistol;
- (f) require a person in possession of a firearm to permit the member to examine the firearm to ascertain whether it is safe and fit for use; or
- (g) require the holder of a gun dealer's licence to produce for inspection by the member the records required to be kept by the holder of the licence pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance or of the regulations.

40. A person shall not fail to comply with a requirement made by a member pursuant to the last preceding section.

Compliance with police requirements.

41.—(1.) Any unregistered firearm, not being a pistol, of which the owner is not known to the Registrar, all unlicensed pistols and all silencers are forfeited to Her Majesty.

Forfeiture of unregistered firearms, unlicensed pistols and silencers.

(2.) Any court by which a person is convicted of an offence against this Ordinance concerning or connected with an unregistered firearm, other than a pistol, may by order forfeit the firearm to Her Majesty.

42.—(1.) The Registrar may issue search warrants, in the prescribed form and signed by him, to search for unregistered firearms, unlicensed pistols and silencers to such members as he thinks fit.

Search warrants.

(2.) A warrant issued under this section remains in force for six months from the date when it is issued, or for such shorter period as is specified in the warrant, unless sooner revoked.

(3.) The member named in a warrant issued under this section may, with such assistants as he deems necessary, enter at any time in the day or night, if necessary by force, and search any house, building, premises or place where he suspects, on reasonable grounds, that any unregistered firearm, unlicensed pistol or silencer is, and any person there found, and may, if necessary, break open and search any cupboards, drawers, chests, trunks, boxes, packages or other things, whether fixtures or not, in which he has reasonable cause to suspect that any silencer, unregistered firearm or unlicensed pistol may be found and may seize any silencer, and any firearm he finds in respect of which he has reasonable ground to suspect that there has been a breach of this Ordinance.

Disposal of forfeited firearms and silencers.

43. All forfeited firearms and silencers shall be disposed of or destroyed in such manner as may be prescribed or as the Administrator directs.

Exemptions.

44. Sections twelve and eighteen of this Ordinance do not apply—

(a) to a person who is—

- (i) a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth;
- (ii) an officer or employee of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a Territory of the Commonwealth; or
- (iii) a member of a police force of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth, in respect of his possession of a firearm, the property of the Crown, which is used or carried by him in the performance of his duty as such an officer, employee or member;

- (b) to a person who is a member of a Rifle Club in respect of his possession of a firearm, the property of the Commonwealth, which is used or carried by him only for the purpose of engaging in or proceeding to or from drill or rifle or pistol practice;
- (c) to a licensed gun dealer in respect of his possession of an unregistered firearm in the ordinary course of his trade or business as a licensed gun dealer;
- (d) to a person in respect of his possession of a firearm for the purpose of shooting at a shooting gallery where the shooting gallery is under the personal supervision and in charge of a responsible person of or over the age of twenty-one years and the firearm is part of the equipment of the shooting gallery;

- (e) to the captain of an aircraft operating in or through the Territory in respect of his possession of a firearm which is used or carried by him in his capacity, or in the performance of his duties, as captain of that aircraft;
- (f) to a common carrier in respect of his possession of a firearm which is not his property and which forms part of a consignment of goods in his possession as a common carrier; or
- (g) to a person not resident in the Northern Territory in respect of his possession of a firearm, other than a pistol, in relation to which he carries or produces a certificate of registration or licence issued under the law of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth.

45. Upon the hearing of a complaint alleging an offence against section twelve or eighteen of this Ordinance, the onus of proving that the provisions of those sections or either of them do not apply to the defendant, lies upon him.

Onus of proof of exemption.

46. The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, prescribing all matters which by this Ordinance are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Ordinance and in particular—

Regulations.

- (a) for prescribing the precautions to be taken by a person in possession of a firearm for the safe custody and control of the firearm;
- (b) for regulating the practice and procedure in relation to an appeal under section thirty of this Ordinance;
- (c) for requiring and regulating the delivery to the Registrar of licences that have been revoked;
- (d) for regulating the conduct of shooting galleries; and
- (e) for prescribing penalties, not exceeding One hundred pounds, for offences against the regulations.
