“The Northern Territory” means the Northern Territory of Australia.

Powers of Minister.

4. All powers and functions vested in the Treasurer of South Australia under the Act may, in relation to the Northern Territory, be exercised by the Minister, and all references in the Act to the Treasurer shall, in relation to the Northern Territory, be construed as references to the Minister.

Transfer of powers of Marine Board.
Amended by No. 10, 1948, s.6; and No. 11, 1952, s.4.

5. All powers functions and duties of the Marine Board or of the President of the Marine Board under the Act may, in relation to the Northern Territory, be exercised or performed by the Administrator, and all references in the Act to the Marine Board or to the President of the Marine Board shall, in relation to the Northern Territory, be construed as references to the Administrator, so far as is necessary to give effect to this section.

Exercise of functions of Secretary of the Marine Board.

6. All powers functions and duties of the Secretary of the Marine Board under the Act shall, in relation to the Northern Territory, be exercised or performed by the Government Secretary or by an officer directed by the Administrator to exercise or perform them, and all references in the Act to the Secretary of the Marine Board shall, in relation to the Northern Territory, be construed as references to the Government Secretary or officer, as the case requires, so far as is necessary to give effect to this section.

Regulations.
Added by No. 12, 1956, s.4.

7. The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Ordinance and the Act, prescribing all matters which by this Ordinance or the Act are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Ordinance or the Act.
