Regs. of 12.12.1931;
1940, No. 3;
and 1956, No. 4.

12.—(1.) Brands shall be made or impressed as follows:—

- (a) every three-letter brand shall be made or impressed in one of the positions specified in the Second Schedule in the case of horses, or in the Third Schedule in the case of cattle;
- (b) each subsequent brand shall be made or impressed in the position set forth in the Second or Third Schedule as next following upon the position occupied by the preceding brand—position one following position six in the Second Schedule to these Regulations and position one following position eight in the Third Schedule to these Regulations;
- (c) every distinctive brand shall be made on either side of the neck or upon either cheek or upon either shoulder or upon either rump or upon either thigh;
- (d) every distinctive numeral brand may be impressed either upon the cheek or neck, or immediately below the three-letter brand;
- (e) the owner of a three-letter brand may brand any of his cattle on either cheek with one numeral to denote the year of birth of any such cattle; and
- (f) more than one brand shall not be made on any one of the positions referred to in paragraph (c), (d) and (e) of this sub-regulation.

(2.) Stock shall be deemed to have been last branded with the brand which appears the last brand according to the order of positions prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the last preceding sub-regulation.

(3.) Owners shall notify the Registrar of Brands of the position in which they have decided to place any brand and shall not vary the position of the brand without the permission of the Registrar.

Earmarking of stock.

13.—(1.) Every registered earmark shall be made upon the ears of stock in the manner, shape and position specified in the certificate of registration of the earmark.

(2.) A registered earmark shall not be made upon any stock upon which an earmark has already been made.

(3.) Cattle shall not be marked with an earmark more than two and one-half inches in length.

brand.

Inserted by Regs. of 31.1.1933.

13A. No person shall make, or permit to be made, a registered earmark upon any stock which has not previously been branded with a registered three-letter brand or with a distinctive brand.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Cull marks on stock.

14.—(1.) In addition to the registered earmark an owner may earmark any of his stock which he may desire to mark as culls with a cull earmark consisting of a notch not more than one inch in length at the tip of either ear:

Provided that no stock shall be earmarked with a cull earmark unless they have been previously branded with a three-letter brand.

(2.) The notch referred to in the last preceding sub-regulation shall be made so as to divide the tip of the ear and only one ear shall be marked with a cull earmark.

(3.) No second or subsequent cull earmark shall be made on any stock.

(4.) An owner may, with the permission in writing of the Registrar but subject to such conditions as the Registrar prescribes in accordance with sub-regulation (6.) of this regulation, punch a hole in one of the ears of an animal of the bovine species which bears a brand and earmark where a cull earmark cannot be made in accordance with sub-regulations (1.) and (2.) of this regulation because of an existing earmark embracing the tips of both ears of the animal. Added by 1956, No. 4.

(5.) A person shall not punch a hole in the ear of an animal of the bovine species except with the permission in writing of the Registrar and in accordance with and subject to such conditions as the Registrar prescribes in that permission. Added by 1956, No. 4.

(6.) The Registrar when granting a permission for the purposes of sub-regulation (4.) of this regulation may specify that the hole shall not exceed one half of an inch in diameter or width and shall be circular, square or diamond in shape. Added by 1956, No. 4.

PART III.—SHEEP AND SWINE.

15.—(1.) The owner of any sheep or swine may forward to the Registrar an application in accordance with Form G for the registration of a brand for sheep and swine. Brands for sheep and swine. Sub-reg. (1.) amended by 1956, No. 4.

(2.) Upon receipt of the application, the Registrar may allot to the applicant a brand for sheep and swine and register it. Amended by 1956, No. 4.

(3.) Upon the registration of the brand, the Registrar shall forward to the person to whom he has allotted the brand a certificate in accordance with Form H, and that person shall be the owner of the brand.

16. Except as provided in sections six and seven of the Ordinance, brands for sheep shall consist of one or more letters, conjoined or separate, three inches in length and shall be made or impressed with red or black paint or raddle in such position as is determined and specified by the Registrar in the certificate of registration of the brand. Description of brands for sheep.

17.—(1.) A person shall not earmark sheep or swine with an earmark more than one and one-quarter of an inch in length. Earmarking sheep and swine.

(2.) The position for and the shape of an earmark to be made upon the ears of sheep and swine is that specified in the certificate of registration of the earmark. Substituted by 1956, No. 4.

18.—(1.) The owner of any sheep or swine may forward to the Registrar an application in accordance with Form J for the registration of an earmark for sheep or swine. Registration of earmarks for sheep and swine.

(2.) Upon receipt of the application, the Registrar may allot an earmark for sheep or swine to the applicant and register it.

(3.) Upon the registration of the earmark, the Registrar shall forward to the person to whom he has allotted the earmark a certificate in accordance with Form K, and that person shall be the owner of the earmark.

Earmark not to be used on sheep, &c., already earmarked.

19. An earmark for sheep or swine shall not be placed on any sheep or swine which already bears an earmark.

Different earmarking for different sexes.

20. An owner may use one ear for one sex and the other ear for the other sex, the ear and sex to be specified in the application.

PART IV.—TRANSFER AND CANCELLATION OF BRANDS.

Transfer of brands.

21.—(1.) The owner of a brand may transfer it to another person by lodging with the Registrar an application for transfer in accordance with Form L.

(2.) Upon receipt of the application for transfer, the Registrar shall cancel the registration in the name of the transferor and register the brand in the name of the transferee.

(3.) Upon registration of the brand in the name of the transferee, the Registrar shall forward to the transferee a certificate in accordance with Form M, and that person shall be thereafter the owner of the brand.

Effect of transfer of brand.

22. The transfer of a brand shall operate as a transfer of all other brands and earmarks owned by the transferor in respect of the run in connexion with which the transferred brand was used.

Cancellation of brand at request of owner.

23.—(1.) The owner of a brand may obtain cancellation of the registration of that brand by forwarding to the Registrar an application in accordance with Form N.

(2.) Upon receipt of the application, the Registrar shall cancel the registration of the brand.
