1965, No. 11 ..	9th June, 1965 ..	23rd June, 1965 ..	23rd June, 1965

“ mark ” includes brand;

“ permit ” means a permit granted under the Ordinance or these Regulations;

“ sawmilling ” means working a mill for the sawing of forest products;

“ take ”, in relation to forest produce, includes cut, fell, remove, damage or partially utilize;

“ the Schedule ” means the schedule to these Regulations;

“ the Ordinance ” means the Forestry Ordinance 1959-1964;

“ timber ” means the trunk and branches of a fallen or felled tree and includes wood sawn, hewn, split or fashioned therefrom.

(2.) Where under these Regulations a number is required to be ascertained according to the number of units in a length, an area, a volume or a period of time and the number of units is not an integer, the number of units shall be deemed to be—

(a) in the case of a length—the next lower integral number of units;
or

(b) in any other case—the next higher integral number of units.

(3.) Strict compliance with the forms in the Schedule is not required and substantial compliance is sufficient.

4. The Administrator may, for the purposes of these Regulations, allot to each forest reserve a distinctive name and a distinctive number.

Distinctive names and numbers for forest reserves.

PART II.—LICENCES.

Division 1.—General.

5. A licence granted under the Ordinance may be—

Kinds of licences.

(a) a Grazing Licence;

(b) a Sawmill Licence;

(c) an Occupation Licence;

(d) a Timber Licence;

(e) a Forest Products Licence; or

(f) a Game Licence.

6.—(1.) Where a licence gives to the holder of the licence, in respect of land specified in the licence, a right that is exclusive to the holder of the licence, the licence shall be expressed to be an exclusive licence.

Exclusive licences.

(2.) A licence that is not expressed to be an exclusive licence shall, unless the contrary is shown, be deemed not to confer any exclusive right on the licensee.

(3.) An exclusive licence does not confer on the holder of the licence the exclusive right to enter the licensed area but it confers on him the exclusive right to do in the licensed area all other things that the licence authorizes him to do there.

Fee for exclusive licence.

7. The fee for an exclusive licence is the amount tendered for the granting of the licence by the person to whom the licence is granted.

Prescribed
purposes, substances
and articles.

8. For the purposes of section twelve of the Ordinance—

(a) conducting a sawmill, conducting a depot, manufacturing forest products, processing forest products, erecting stockyards and using land for recreation purposes or for residential purposes related to the carrying out of a prescribed purpose are prescribed purposes; and

(b) the substances and articles that are forest produce as defined in the Ordinance are prescribed substances and articles.

Forms of application
for licences.

9. An application for a licence shall be in accordance with the appropriate form and shall be accompanied by an application fee of Two pounds.

Granting, &c.,
of applications
for licences.

10.—(1.) The Administrator may, by notice in writing served on the applicant—

(a) grant the application;

(b) refuse the application; or

(c) return the application for amendment in such manner as is specified in the notice.

(2.) If the Administrator grants the application he shall set out in the notice any conditions, other than prescribed conditions, to which the licence will be subject if it is granted.

(3.) If the application is amended in such manner as is specified in the notice and returned to the Administrator within such period as is specified in the notice the Administrator shall grant the application as so amended.

(4.) As soon as practicable after the Administrator has granted an application and a receipt for the fee for the licence has been issued, the Administrator shall issue to the applicant a licence in the appropriate form.

Amounts
payable in advance under licences.

11.—(1.) If the application is for a licence under which forest produce may be taken the Administrator shall ascertain the amount that in the opinion of the Forestry Officer will become payable as royalties in respect of forest produce taken under the licence during the first year that the licence is in force.

(2.) One fifth of the amount so ascertained shall be set out in any notice served under the last preceding regulation, and is payable with the fee for the licence and shall be retained and credited towards royalties payable in respect of forest produce taken under the licence.

(3.) If the amount referred to in the last preceding sub-regulation is paid but at the date when the licence is determined that amount exceeds the total of all royalties payable, but unpaid, in respect of forest produce taken under the licence after the commencement of the licence, the Administrator shall refund the difference to the holder of the licence.

When fee for licence may be paid.

12.—(1.) An applicant may pay the fee for a licence and any amount payable under the last preceding regulation—

(a) on receiving a notice under regulation 10 of these Regulations that his application is granted; or

(b) on returning to the Administrator his application amended as specified in such a notice.

(2.) On receiving from an applicant the fee for a licence and any amount payable under the last preceding regulation the Administrator shall cause a receipt to be issued to the applicant without delay.

13. When an applicant obtains a receipt for the fee for a licence he shall be deemed to hold the licence subject to the conditions of the licence, whether or not a licence in the appropriate form has been issued to him.

Applicant deemed to be licensee on obtaining receipt for fee.

14. For the purpose of calculating the fee payable for a licence, the licence shall be deemed to commence on the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which the Administrator grants the application for the licence, and to continue in force until the date of expiry specified in the application, or the amended application, as the case requires.

Calculation of fee. Substituted by 1965, No. 11.

15.—(1.) Unless sooner determined, a licence expires on the date specified in the licence as the date of expiry of the licence.

Expiry and renewal of licences.

(2.) The holder of a licence that is not an exclusive licence may, with the consent of the Administrator and subject to such terms and conditions as the Administrator specifies, renew the licence for such period, not inconsistent with the Ordinance and these Regulations, as the Administrator approves.

Sub-reg. (1.) amended by 1965, No. 11.

(3.) An application for the renewal of a licence shall be in writing lodged with the Administrator during the prescribed period and shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a fee of Two pounds; and
- (b) an amount as and for the fee payable for the renewed licence, calculated for the period for which the renewal is sought.

(4.) The prescribed period for the lodging of an application for the renewal of a licence commences two months before the licence expires and ends on the expiry or sooner determination of the licence.

(5.) If the Administrator does not grant the application in respect of the period for which the renewal is sought, he shall refund to the applicant any amount by which the amount paid as and for the fee under sub-regulation (3.) of this regulation exceeds the fee for the period in respect of which the licence is renewed.

(6.) An exclusive licence may not be renewed.

16.—(1.) Where a licence granted under the Ordinance (in this regulation referred to as "the original licence") has been lost or destroyed, the holder of the licence may make application in writing to the Administrator for the issue to him of a duplicate licence.

Lost or destroyed licences.

(2.) If the Administrator is satisfied that—

- (a) the original licence has been lost or destroyed; and
- (b) no improper use has been or is being made of the original licence by, or with the consent of, the applicant, he may, upon payment by the applicant of a fee of Ten shillings, issue to him a duplicate licence.

(3.) A duplicate licence issued under this regulation has the same force and effect as the original licence.

Amended by 1965, No. 11.

(4.) A person shall not, in or in relation to an application under this regulation, make a statement or furnish information that is false or misleading in any particular.

Defaced
licences.

17.—(1.) Where a licence granted under the Ordinance has been defaced, the Administrator may—

(a) upon application in writing, accompanied by the defaced licence; and

(b) upon payment of a fee of Ten shillings, issue a duplicate licence to the holder of the defaced licence.

(2.) A duplicate licence issued under this regulation has the same force and effect as the licence of which it is the duplicate licence.

Forfeiture of licences.

18.—(1.) Where, in the opinion of the Administrator, the holder of a licence has failed to comply with a condition of his licence, the Administrator may—

(a) by notice in writing served on the holder of the licence, direct him to comply with the condition of the licence forthwith or within such time as the Administrator specifies in the notice; or

(b) by notice in the Gazette, forfeit the licence.

(2.) If the holder of a licence fails to comply with a direction in a notice under paragraph (a) of the last preceding sub-regulation, the Administrator may, by notice in the Gazette, forfeit the licence.

Conditions
applicable to licences.

19. A licence is subject to the following conditions:—

(a) a condition that the land in respect of which the licence is granted shall be used only for the purpose for which it is granted;

(b) a condition that the holder of the licence shall, when requested to do so, produce the licence for inspection to the Administrator or a person authorized by the Administrator to inspect the licence; and

(c) a condition that the licence shall not be transferred except with the consent in writing of the Administrator.

Conditions
applicable to licences to take forest produce.

20. A licence that confers a right to take forest produce is subject to the following conditions:—

(a) a condition that the holder of the licence shall not, while the licence is in force, take forest produce from any land other than the land in respect of which the licence is granted without first obtaining the written permission of the Administrator to do so;

(b) a condition that forest produce taken under the licence but not removed from the licensed area within the prescribed time shall become the property of the Commonwealth; and

(c) a condition that the holder of the licence shall pay the royalties determined under the Ordinance in respect of any forest produce taken under the licence not later than two months after that forest produce is taken.

21.—(1.) The Forestry Officer may give to the holder of a licence directions—

Holder of licence to comply with directions of Forestry Officer.

(a) relating to the protection of—

- (i) regenerative plant growth;
- (ii) standing trees; or
- (iii) the banks of watercourses, from damage that might be occasioned by the falling, snigging or hauling of forest produce under the licence;

(b) as to whether a particular tree shall or shall not be felled under the licence; or

(c) as to what routes shall be used for snigging or hauling forest produce under the licence.

(2.) The holder of a licence shall comply with a direction given under the last preceding sub-regulation.

22. Where the Administrator consents to the transfer of a licence he shall endorse on the licence a memorandum of the consent in accordance with Form 1.

Consent to transfer to be endorsed on licence.

23.—(1.) The Administrator may give written permission to the holder of a licence to erect a building or structure, or any machinery, on the land in respect of which the licence is granted.

Erection of buildings, structures and machinery.

(2.) The Administrator shall not give such permission unless he is satisfied that the erection of the building, structure or machinery is necessary or desirable for carrying out the purposes of the licence.

(3.) The Commonwealth shall not be liable for compensation in respect of a building, structure or machinery erected or being erected with the permission of the Administrator given under this regulation.

(4.) Subject to the next succeeding sub-regulation, at the expiry or sooner determination of the licence, the holder of the licence may, if all moneys due to the Commonwealth in respect of the licence have been paid in full, remove any building, structure or machinery erected by him on the land in respect of which the licence was formerly in force.

(5.) Any building, structure or machinery remaining after three months from the expiry or sooner determination of a licence on land in respect of which the licence was formerly in force becomes the property of the Commonwealth.

24. If the Administrator is of the opinion that waste or incomplete utilization is occurring in the exercise of a right conferred by a licence, he may, whether the licence is an exclusive licence or not—

Avoiding waste, &c.

- (a) issue additional licences in respect of the licensed area; or
- (b) do any other thing he thinks fit, for the purpose of avoiding waste or of effecting a greater degree of utilization of forest produce within the licensed area.

25. Subject to these Regulations, the time prescribed for payment of a fee or charge for or under a licence is any time within twenty-one days of the date on which the fee or charge becomes due and payable.

Prescribed time for payment of fees and charges.

Stripping of bark prohibited except under express licence.

26. The holder of a licence shall not—

- (a) strip the bark from a standing tree; or
- (b) fell a tree for the purpose of obtaining its bark, unless his licence expressly authorizes him to strip the bark from a standing tree.

Maximum and minimum quantities.

27. Each timber licence and each forest products licence shall specify the maximum quantity and the minimum quantity of timber or other forest produce that may be taken in each year under the licence during the period that the licence is in force.

Trees within 20 chains of well, &c., not to be taken, &c.

28.—(1.) A licence does not confer on the holder of the licence a right to destroy, take or move a growing tree or any dead mulga within a radius of twenty chains from a well, watering trough, dam or homestead.

(2.) The last preceding sub-regulation does not apply to a licence in respect of land in a forest reserve.

Division 2.—Grazing Licences.

Form of application for grazing licence.

29. An application for a grazing licence shall be in accordance with Form 2.

Fee for grazing licence.

30.—(1.) Subject to regulation 7 of these Regulations and this regulation, the fee payable for a grazing licence is an amount calculated at the rate of Two pence for each square mile of the area of the land in respect of which the licence is granted, for each month during which the licence is in force.

(2.) The Administrator may—

- (a) determine that the fee payable for a grazing licence shall be a fee based on the carrying capacity of cattle of the land in respect of which the licence is granted;
- (b) determine the carrying capacity of cattle of that land; and
- (c) determine the fee payable for the grazing licence, based on that carrying capacity.

(3.) The fee so determined shall not be greater than the amount calculated according to the formula—

$$F = A \times C \times M,$$

where—

F is the fee in pence;

A is the area, in square miles, of the land in respect of which the licence is granted;

C is the carrying capacity, in cattle per square mile, of that land; and

M is the number of months during which the licence is in force.

(4.) The Administrator shall, within one month after the making of a determination under sub-regulation (2.) of this regulation, give notice of the determination in writing to the holder of the licence.

(5.) Where by reason of such a determination the fee payable under a grazing licence differs from the amount paid as fee for the licence before the issue of the licence—

- (a) if the fee exceeds the amount, the holder of the licence shall pay the difference to the Administrator within one month after the date on which he receives such a notice; and
- (b) if the amount exceeds the fee, the Administrator shall pay the difference to the holder of the licence within one month after the date on which he gives such a notice.

31. A grazing licence shall be in accordance with Form 3 and shall contain— Form of grazing licence.

- (a) a condition as to the classes of stock and the maximum number of animals belonging to each class of stock that may be depastured on the land in respect of which the licence is granted; and
- (b) a condition that the person to whom the licence is granted shall, within the prescribed time, pay to the Administrator any amount payable by him under sub-regulation (5.) of the last preceding regulation.

32.—(1.) The thirtieth day of June next succeeding the date on which a grazing licence is granted shall be specified in the grazing licence as the date of expiry of the licence, unless the licence is sooner determined. Expiry and cancellation of grazing licences.

(2.) The Administrator may, after giving the holder of a grazing licence three months notice in writing of his intention to do so, cancel the licence.

Division 3.—Sawmill Licences.

33. An application for a sawmill licence shall be in accordance with Form 4 or Form 5, whichever is appropriate. Form of application for sawmill licence.

34. Subject to regulation 7 of these Regulations, the fee payable for a sawmill licence is an amount calculated at the rate of Two pounds for each year during which the licence is in force. Fee for sawmill licence.

35. A sawmill licence shall be in accordance with Form 6. Form of sawmill licence.

36.—(1.) The holder of a sawmill licence shall keep— Sawmill books.

- (a) a Log Book in accordance with Form 7 or such other form as is permitted under sub-regulation (3.) of this regulation; and
- (b) a Mill Journal.

(2.) The holder of a sawmill licence shall ensure that the Log Book and the Mill Journal contain correct particulars in accordance with these Regulations.

(3.) The Administrator may give written permission to the holder of a sawmill licence to keep a Log Book in accordance with a form having such alterations or additions to or such omissions from the column headings contained in Form 7 as are approved in writing by the Administrator.

Forestry Regulations

(4.) The holder of a sawmill licence shall ensure that—

- (a) the particulars prescribed by these Regulations to be contained in the Log Book and Mill Journal are correctly contained in those books;
- (b) subject to paragraph (e) of this sub-regulation, no leaves or particulars are excised from the Log Book or Mill Journal;
- (c) the Log Book is kept at the sawmill;
- (d) the particulars indicated by the headings to the columns of the Log Book are correctly recorded in the Log Book in duplicate each day, by the carbon-paper process, in respect of all log and other timber received on that day at the sawmill or depot, if any, established at the sawmill yard; and
- (e) not later than seven days after the end of each calendar month or of such other period as the Administrator directs, the carbon duplicates of the particulars so recorded are excised and forwarded to the Forestry Officer.

(5.) The Administrator shall supply a Log Book in accordance with Form 7 at cost price to each holder of a sawmill licence.

(6.) The Mill Journal shall contain particulars, in respect of each calendar month, as to—

- (a) the sizes and total quantity of—
 - (i) sawn timber converted during that month from log timber at the sawmill; and
 - (ii) sawn timber removed during that month from the sawmill premises; and
 - (b) any persons to whom any sawn timber referred to in the last preceding paragraph was sold during that month,
- or such other particulars as the Administrator approves in writing.

Entries in Log Book in relation to royalties.

37. At the end of each calendar month or such other period as the Administrator directs, the holder of a sawmill licence shall cause—

- (a) his Log Book to be ruled off; and
- (b) a summary to be correctly compiled in his Log Book, showing, in respect of the month or period—
 - (i) the total quantity of timber on which royalties are or have been payable; and
 - (ii) where any royalties have been paid on some or all of that timber, the amount of the royalties and the receipt number of, and date of payment shown on, the receipt obtained from the Receiver of Public Moneys for the royalties paid.

38. The holder of a sawmill licence and the manager of the sawmill in respect of which the licence is granted shall ensure that—

Logs, &c., to be marked, &c.

- (a) when a log or other piece of timber is placed in the sawmill yard or is measured in a depot under the control of the holder or manager, it is immediately marked, in consecutive order and to the satisfaction of the Forestry Officer, with a distinguishing number and, unless it has already been measured, is then immediately measured; and

- (b) the distinguishing number of the log or other piece of timber is then immediately entered in the Log Book, together with any corresponding measurements not already entered in the Log Book.

39. A sawmill licence is subject to—

- (a) a condition that all timber treated at the sawmill shall be marketed by the holder of the licence true to its local name as shown in the table in regulation 53 of these Regulations;

Sawmill
licence
conditions.

- (b) a condition that where the holder of the licence sells timber treated at the sawmill which is susceptible to attack by Lycus, he shall give to the purchaser an invoice of sale containing the notation "susceptible to Lycus", unless the timber has been subjected to an immunization process approved in writing by the Forestry Officer; and

- (c) if determined by the Administrator and expressed in the notice of the grant of the licence, a condition that the sawmill yard shall be a depot for the purposes of these Regulations.

40. A person shall not conduct a sawmill except under and in accordance with a sawmill licence that is in force.

Unlicensed
sawmilling prohibited.

Division 4.—Occupation Licences.

41. An application for an occupation licence shall be in accordance with Form 8.

Form of application for occupation
licence.

42.—(1.) Subject to regulation 7 of these Regulations, the fee payable for an occupation licence is the amount specified by the Administrator in a notice to the applicant for the licence under regulation 10 of these Regulations.

Fee for occupation
licence.

(2.) The amount so specified shall be not less than an amount calculated at the rate of Ten shillings for each acre of the land in respect of which the application, or amended application, as the case requires, is made.

43. The area of land in respect of which an occupation licence may be granted shall not exceed two acres except where the Administrator is satisfied that the particular case justifies the granting of an occupation licence in respect of an area exceeding two acres.

Limitation of area subject to occupation
licence.

44. An occupation licence shall be in accordance with Form 9.

Form of occupation
licence.

45.—(1.) The thirtieth day of June next succeeding the date on which an occupation licence is granted shall be specified in the occupation licence as the date of expiry of the licence unless the licence is sooner determined.

Expiry and cancellation of occupation
licence.

(2.) The Administrator may, after giving the holder of an occupation licence three months notice in writing of his intention to do so, cancel the licence.

Grazing of stock under occupation licence.

46. An occupation licence shall contain a condition that the holder of the licence shall not, without the written permission of the Administrator, graze stock on the licensed area except in such numbers, of such classes and subject to such conditions as are specified in the licence.

Division 5.—Timber Licences.

Form of application for timber licence.

47. An application for a timber licence shall be in accordance with Form 10.

Fee for timber licence.

48. Subject to regulation 7 of these Regulations, the fee payable for a timber licence is an amount calculated at the rate of Two pounds for each year of the period that the licence is in force.

Form of timber licence.

49. A timber licence shall be in accordance with Form 11.

Expiry of timber licence.

50. A date not later than ten years after the date of issue of a timber licence shall be specified in the timber licence as the date of expiry of the licence unless the licence is sooner determined.

Survey fee.

51.—(1.) The Administrator may at any time have the land in respect of which a timber licence is granted surveyed by a licensed surveyor.

(2.) Where the land is so surveyed, the holder of the timber licence shall pay to the Commonwealth such amount, being not less than Five pounds, as the Administrator determines to be the fee for the survey.

Certain trees not to be cut, &c.
Amended by 1965, No 11.

52. Where a timber licence is granted in respect of a licensed area situated south of the eighteenth degree of south latitude, the holder of the licence shall not, except in pursuance of a right, permit, licence, lease or authority granted and in force under the Control of Waters Ordinance 1938-1965, the Crown Lands Ordinance 1931-1964, the Mining Ordinance 1939-1964, the Special Purposes Leases Ordinance 1953-1963, or section sixteen of the Forestry Ordinance 1959-1964, destroy, take or move a tree or part of a tree growing on the licensed area and belonging to a class indicated by a botanical name in the following table:—

54.—(1.) If the Administrator is of the opinion that all marketable timber has been taken from a portion of the licensed area of a timber licence and that the rights under the licence of the holder of the licence would not be substantially reduced if that portion were omitted from the licensed area, the Administrator may amend the licence by omitting that portion from the licensed area.

Administrator may amend timber licence by omitting denuded portion from licensed area.

(2.) Where the Administrator so amends a timber licence, the licence shall have effect as amended from the date of the amendment.

Felled trees not to obstruct roads, &c.

55. The holder of a timber licence shall ensure that—

- (a) when a tree is felled under the licence all reasonable precautions are taken to prevent the tree from obstructing a road, track or stream; and
- (b) if a tree when felled obstructs a road, track or stream, the tree is moved without delay so as to get rid of the obstruction.

Conditions as to topping, &c., to be included in timber licences.

56. A timber licence in respect of a licensed area in a forest reserve or on Crown land that is leased shall contain conditions as to—

- (a) the topping and stacking of heads of trees and debris; and
- (b) the liability of the holder of the licence for damage done to improvements belonging to the Commonwealth or a lessee during the taking, working or removal of timber or other forest produce under the licence.

Stumps, butts and logs to be hammer branded.

57. The holder of a timber licence shall ensure that—

- (a) immediately after a tree is felled under the licence, the stump and butt of the tree are clearly marked, by means of a branding hammer, with his registered brand; and
- (b) where a tree is felled under the licence, before any log of timber obtained from the tree is removed from where the tree is felled, it is clearly marked, by means of a branding hammer, with his registered brand.

PART III.—PERMITS.

67. A permit may be in accordance with Form 16.

Form of permit.

68. A notice under section twenty-two of the Ordinance that a permit is revoked may be in accordance with Form 17.

Form of notice
revoking permit.

69. Regulations 20 and 21 of these Regulations apply to and in relation to a permit as if the permit were a licence and the holder of the permit were the holder of a licence.

Application
of regulations 20 and 21 in relation to permits.

70.—(1) The Administrator, the Forestry Officer or a Forester authorized in writing by the Forestry Officer to grant a permit under section twenty-two of the Ordinance, may, before granting a permit, require an applicant for the permit to pay in advance the amount that in the opinion of the Forestry Officer or such a Forester will become payable as royalties in respect of forest produce taken under the permit during the first period that the permit is in force.

Amounts
payable in advance under permits.

(2.) If that amount is paid but, at the date when the permit is determined, exceeds the total of all royalties payable in respect of forest produce taken under the permit after the commencement of the permit, the Administrator shall refund the difference to the holder of the permit.

PART IV.—FOREST PRODUCE (SPECIAL PROVISIONS).

71.—(1) Subject to this regulation the number of superficial feet in a log of timber (referred to in this regulation as "True Log Volume") shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:—

Calculation of content of logs.

$$\text{T.L.V.} = \left(\frac{D}{2}\right)^2 \times \frac{22}{7} \times \frac{L}{12}$$

Sub-reg. (1.)
1965, No. 2.

where—

T.L.V. is the number of superficial feet in the log;
D is the centre log diameter in inches; and
L is the length of the log in feet.

(2.) Where the True Log Volume of a log of timber is calculated in accordance with the formula set out in the last preceding sub-regulation—

- (a) the centre log diameter shall be ascertained—
 - (i) by measuring, under the bark, the diameter of the log at the lineal centre of the log; or
 - (ii) by measuring, under the bark, two diameters of the log at equal distances from each end of the log and taking the mean of those diameters as the centre log diameter;
- (b) diameter tapes approved by the Forestry Officer shall be used for ascertaining the measurements used in the formula;
- (c) volume tables showing the True Log Volume for different centre log diameters and lengths shall be used if the Administrator makes such tables available for purchase;
- (d) due allowance shall be made for pipe and other defects; and
- (e) the decision of the Forestry Officer as to—
 - (i) whether there are any pipe or other defects; and
 - (ii) what allowance shall be made for pipe or other defects, if any, shall be final and conclusive as against the holder of the licence under which the timber is obtained.

Removal of forest produce to depot before payment of royalties.

72.—(1.) Where forest produce in respect of which royalties are payable is taken under a licence, the holder of the licence may, with the consent in writing of the Forestry Officer and subject to these Regulations and to such conditions as the Forestry Officer specifies in writing, remove the forest produce to a depot and store it there for a time specified in writing by the Forestry Officer, notwithstanding that royalties have not been paid in respect of the forest produce.

(2.) The forest produce shall not be so removed or stored unless it is marked with the registered brand of the holder of the licence.

(3.) With respect to forest produce removed to a depot under this regulation, the Forestry Officer, or a person authorized by him in writing to do so, may exercise all or any of the following powers:—

- (a) he may inspect it at any reasonable time;
- (b) if it is removed from the depot before the royalties payable in respect of it are paid, he may seize it;
- (c) if he has reason to suspect that the holder of a licence intends to remove it from the depot before the royalties payable in respect of it are paid, he may detain it; and
- (d) if the holder of a licence commits in relation to it a breach of the Ordinance or these Regulations, he may detain it.

Forest produce not to be taken from depot unless royalties paid.

73. A person shall not take from a depot forest produce removed to the depot under the last preceding regulation unless—

- (a) all royalties payable in respect of the forest produce have been paid; or
- (b) he has the consent in writing of the Forestry Officer to take the forest produce.

74. A person shall not remove forest produce obtained under a licence from the place where it is felled or otherwise obtained unless—

- (a) all royalties payable in respect of the forest produce have been paid;
- (b) the forest produce is removed, in accordance with regulation 72 of these Regulations, to a depot; or
- (c) the person has the consent in writing of the Forestry Officer to remove the forest produce from such a place.

Forest produce not to be removed from where obtained unless royalties paid.

75.—(1.) The Forestry Officer shall cause accounts for royalties payable under a licence to be served as soon as practicable after the end of each calendar month.

Accounts for royalties.

(2.) A holder of a licence served with such an account shall pay the amount stated in the account within twenty-one days after the date shown on the account.

(3.) An alleged inaccuracy is not an excuse for not paying such an account within the prescribed time, but if the holder of the licence satisfies the Forestry Officer that the account is inaccurate, the Forestry Officer shall correct the error by allowing for the inaccuracy in a subsequent account or arranging for the repayment of the appropriate sum to the holder of the licence.

76.—(1.) Where an amount payable as royalties is not paid by the holder of a licence within the prescribed time, the Forestry Officer may enter the licensed area and prohibit the doing of any act that may be done under the licence and may seize any forest produce that is the property of the holder of the licence and is on the licensed area, not being forest produce in respect of which an offence has been committed.

Powers of Forestry Officer where account not paid.

(2.) The Forestry Officer may sell, by public auction or otherwise, property seized under the last preceding sub-regulation.

(3.) The buyer of property sold under the last preceding sub-regulation obtains a good title to the property.

(4.) The Forestry Officer shall arrange for payment to the holder of the licence of any amount by which the proceeds of a sale under this regulation exceed the sum of the amount payable by the holder of the licence as royalties and the amount of the expenses of and incidental to the sale.

PART V.—MARKS, BRANDS AND NOTICES.

77.—(1.) The Forestry Officer shall keep a register of brands.

Registration of brands.

(2.) When a licence that gives to a person a right to take timber is issued, the Forestry Officer may allot a distinctive brand to the holder of the licence and if he does he shall register that brand as the brand of the holder of the licence.

(3.) A person who owns timber on which royalties have not been paid and are not payable may apply in writing to the Forestry Officer for a brand.

(4.) On receiving such an application the Forestry Officer may, if he thinks fit, allot a distinctive brand to the applicant and register that brand as the applicant's brand.

Restriction on use of letters "PP" and letter "P".

78.—(1.) The Forestry Officer shall not allot as a brand the letters "PP" or the letter "P".

(2.) A person shall not mark the letters "PP" or the letter "P" on timber obtained under a licence or apply the letters "PP" or the letter "P" to such timber.

Certain false representations prohibited.

79. A person who has in his possession timber obtained under a licence shall not falsely represent that such timber is timber obtained otherwise than under a licence or is not subject to payment of royalties.

Marking of timber not subject to royalties.

80.—(1.) Subject to the next succeeding sub-regulation, where a person owns timber on which royalties have not been paid and are not payable he shall ensure that such timber is marked with his brand and the letters "PP" before it is delivered at a sawmill or depot or taken into a controlled area, whichever first occurs.

(2.) A person may, with the consent in writing of the Forestry Officer and subject to such conditions as the Forestry Officer specifies in writing, remove such timber from leased Crown land to a sawmill, notwithstanding that it is not marked with the letters "PP", if the purpose of so removing it is to convert it for subsequent use on that Crown land.

Distinctive marks for purposes of section 28.

81. The symbol "↑", with or without the letters "FD" or "RP" is a distinctive mark for the purposes of section twenty-eight of the Ordinance.

Offences with respect to distinctive marks and brands.

82.—(1.) A person other than an authorized person shall not mark forest produce with the symbol "↑".

(2.) A person other than an authorized person shall not, without the authority in writing of the Administrator or the Forestry Officer, make or have in his possession an instrument used by an authorized person to mark forest produce with a distinctive mark, or a like instrument.

(3.) A person other than an authorized person shall not—

(a) mark forest produce with a distinctive mark; or

(b) use or have in his possession an instrument for impressing a mark on forest produce—

(i) that is used by an authorized person to mark forest produce with a distinctive mark; or

(ii) that bears the symbol "↑" and is capable of being used to impress a counterfeit of a distinctive mark or a mark so closely resembling a distinctive mark as to be likely to deceive.

(4.) A person shall not falsely apply, counterfeit or deface a distinctive mark or a brand registered under these Regulations.

(5.) In this regulation—

"authorized person" means the Forestry Officer, a Forester, a forest officer or a person authorized in writing by the Administrator or the Forestry Officer to act under section twenty-four of the Ordinance;

"distinctive mark" means a mark used as a distinctive mark for the purposes of section twenty-eight of the Ordinance.

83. A person shall not deface, cut out, destroy or remove—

- (a) a mark consisting of the symbol “↑”, with or without letters or numbers, placed on forest produce by an authorized person;
- (b) a survey peg inserted in the ground; or
- (c) a notice set up by authority of the Administrator, unless he is authorized to do so.

Offence to deface, &c., mark, survey peg or notice.

PART VI.—USE OF FIRE IN FOREST RESERVES.

84.—(1.) A person shall not—

- (a) light or kindle a fire; or
- (b) do any act which starts a fire,

Lighting of fires in forest reserves.

in a forest reserve, unless he is authorized to do so.

(2.) A person shall not light or kindle a fire in a forest reserve except where he has so cleared the ground that there is no inflammable material or debris within twelve feet of the fire.

(3.) A person who lights or kindles a fire in a forest reserve—

- (a) shall take all precautions necessary to prevent the fire from spreading; and
- (b) shall not leave the fire until he has extinguished it.

85. A person shall not burn off dry herbage, forest litter or other debris in a forest reserve—

- (a) unless he has the consent in writing of the Forestry Officer to do so; or
- (b) otherwise than in accordance with such conditions as to the time and manner of the burning off as are specified by the Forestry Officer in the instrument by which he gives his consent.

Burning off in forest reserves.

86. A person shall not set fire in the open to any tree, timber, bush or grass on land adjacent to a forest reserve unless he has first given to a forest officer such notice of his intention as will allow that forest officer to be present, if he so desires, at the firing.

Notice of intention to set fire to tree, &c.
Amended by 1965, No. 11.

87. A person shall not use, or have in his possession, a wax match or a preparation containing phosphorus, or, except with the written permission of the Forestry Officer, a firearm—

- (a) in a forest reserve north of the fifteenth degree of south latitude at any time after the month of March and before the month of December; or
- (b) in a forest reserve south of that degree, at any time.

Prohibition of use and possession of wax matches, &c.

88. A person shall not use, or cause to be used, in a forest reserve a traction or portable engine driven by steam unless—

- (a) the engine is on the site of a licensed sawmill; or
- (b) the engine is used in accordance with the written permission of the Forestry Officer.

Use of traction and portable steam engines.

Duties of licensee in respect of prevention of fire damage, &c.

89. The holder of a licence shall—

- (a) take all reasonable precautions to prevent damage by fire on the land in respect of which his licence is granted;
- (b) take all reasonable steps to prevent the spread of fire on and from that land;
- (c) take all reasonable steps to extinguish any fire that breaks out on that land; and
- (d) report immediately to the nearest forest officer the outbreak of any fire on that land.

PART VII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Establishment of depots.

90. The Administrator may establish or approve the establishing of depots where forest produce may be inspected and measured for the purposes of the Ordinance and these Regulations and held until the royalties payable in respect of the forest produce are paid.

Restrictions on storing and depositing forest produce in depots.

91. A person shall not—

- (a) deposit or store forest produce in a depot except in accordance with the directions of a forest officer; or
- (b) leave forest produce in a depot for more than three months except with the written permission of the Forestry Officer.

Forest produce taken to be removed from licensed area within prescribed time.

92.—(1.) A person shall not keep forest produce on a licensed area later than—

- (a) the date of expiry of the licence in respect of the licensed area;
- (b) the date that is three months after the date on which the forest produce is obtained; or
- (c) where the Forestry Officer in writing permits the forest produce to be kept until a date that is later than the later of those dates, the date so permitted, whichever is the latest.

(2.) The last preceding sub-regulation applies whether the forest produce is obtained on the licensed area or elsewhere but does not apply where the forest produce is kept in a depot.

Extension of prescribed time for removal of forest produce.

93.—(1.) A person may make application to the Forestry Officer for permission to keep forest produce on a licensed area or in a depot for a period longer than the period prescribed by these Regulations.

(2.) The application shall be in writing and shall set out—

- (a) particulars as to the kind and quantity of forest produce in respect of which the application is made;
- (b) if the forest produce is branded, particulars as to the brands;
- (c) particulars as to when the forest produce was cut, felled or obtained;
- (d) particulars as to where the forest produce is;
- (e) particulars as to why it is not reasonably practicable to remove the forest produce from the licensed area or depot within the period so prescribed; and
- (f) particulars as to the licences under which the forest produce has been cut, felled or obtained.

Amended by 1965, No. 11.

(3.) If the Forestry Officer is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable for the applicant to remove the forest produce within the period so prescribed, he may, by notice in writing to the applicant, give permission to the applicant to keep the forest produce or some of it on the licensed area or in the depot, subject to such conditions and until such date as he specifies in the notice.

94.—(1.) The holder of a timber licence or forest products licence may make application in writing to the Forestry Officer for an employees authority.

(2.) The application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee and shall set out—

- (a) particulars as to the applicant's licence;
- (b) the name and address of the person for whom the employees authority is sought; and
- (c) the date on which that person became or proposes to become an employee of the applicant.

(3.) The fee for an employees authority is Ten shillings.

(4.) The Forestry Officer may grant or refuse the application.

(5.) An employees authority—

- (a) commences on the date on which it is expressed to be issued; and
- (b) continues in force unless sooner determined until—

(i) the date that is one year after the date on which it commences;

(ii) the date of expiry or sooner determination of the applicant's timber licence or forest products licence;
or

(iii) the date on which the person named as employee in the authority ceases to be employed by the applicant, whichever is the earliest.

(6.) An employees authority authorizes the person named as employee in the authority to do any act specified in the authority, being an act that may be done by the applicant under his timber licence or forest products licence.

(7.) An employees authority shall be in accordance with Form 18.

(8.) An employees authority is subject to such conditions as are specified in the authority.

95. A person shall not employ any other person—

(a) to take, or move forest produce on or from a controlled area, unless that other person holds an employees authority that is in force; or

(b) to take, or move forest produce on or from land in a controlled area not being land specified in that other person's employees authority or in an endorsement on that employees authority.

Employment of person not holding employees authorities prohibited.

96.—(1.) The Administrator may by notice in writing, served on the person to whom the notice is directed, direct a person who—

(a) deals in timber;

Timber Books.

Forestry Regulations

- (b) transports timber; or
- (c) takes delivery of timber,

but not including a person who is the holder of a sawmill licence that is in force, to keep a Timber Book in accordance with Form 19.

(2.) A person served with such a notice shall comply with the directions contained in it.

(3.) The Administrator shall supply a Timber Book in accordance with Form 19 at cost price to each person to whom he gives a direction under this regulation.

(4.) A person required under this regulation to keep a Timber Book shall ensure that—

- (a) subject to paragraph (c) of this sub-regulation, no leaves or particulars are excised from the Timber Book;
- (b) the particulars indicated by the headings to the columns of the Timber Book are correctly recorded in the Timber Book in duplicate each day, by the carbon paper process, in respect of all timber received or otherwise dealt with on that day;
- (c) not later than seven days after the end of each calendar month or of such other period as the Administrator in writing directs, the carbon duplicates of the particulars so recorded are excised and forwarded to the Forestry Officer;
- (d) at the end of each calendar month, or of such other period as the Administrator in writing directs, a correct summary is made in the Timber Book showing in respect of that month or period as the case requires—
 - (i) the total quantity of timber received or otherwise dealt with in respect of which royalties were payable at any time during that month or period;
 - (ii) the total amount of all royalties paid on that timber; and
 - (iii) the number and date of each receipt for royalties paid in respect of that timber;
 and
- (e) when a forest officer requests that the Timber Book be produced, it is produced for his inspection.

Statement may be required as to forest produce in possession.

97.—(1.) If a person is in possession of forest produce, the Forestry Officer, a Forester or an authorized person—

- (a) may require him to furnish a statement in writing setting out particulars as to—
 - (i) the kinds and quantities of the forest produce in his possession;
 - (ii) the location of the land from which that forest produce was taken;
 - (iii) when it was taken;
 - (iv) when it came into his possession; and
 - (v) the person, if any, from whom he obtained it; and
- (b) may require him to produce any books or records he is required to keep under these Regulations.

(2.) A person in possession of forest produce required under the last preceding sub-regulation to furnish a statement or produce a book or record shall comply with the requirement.

(3.) In this regulation "authorized person" means a person authorized by the Administrator or the Forestry Officer by writing under his hand to act under section twenty-four of the Ordinance.

98.—(1.) Subject to this regulation, a person shall not—

Protection of animals in forest reserves.

- (a) hunt, destroy, injure, shoot at, or trap an animal that is in a forest reserve; or
- (b) enter a forest reserve for the purpose of hunting, destroying, injuring, shooting at or trapping an animal that is in a forest reserve, except in accordance with a permit or game licence that is in force.

(2.) The owner or occupier of land adjacent to a forest reserve may, without such a permit or game licence, hunt, destroy, shoot at or trap—

- (a) dingoes; and
- (b) any other animals, being vermin or noxious animals under a law of the Territory, that are in a forest reserve.

99. A notice under these Regulations may be given or served on a person—

Service, &c., of notices.

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending the notice by post to the person at his last-known place of abode, employment or business;
- (c) by handing the notice at the person's last-known place of abode to a person who is apparently an inmate and is apparently over the age of sixteen years; or
- (d) in the case of a body politic or body corporate, by sending the notice by post to the registered office, if any, of that body or by giving the notice personally to, or serving it personally on, the manager, secretary or other executive officer of that body.

100.—(1.) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of these Regulations is guilty of an offence and, on conviction—

Penalty and damages.

- (a) is punishable by a fine not exceeding Fifty pounds or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months; and
- (b) is liable for any loss or damage caused by the offence.

(2.) The amount of any loss or damage caused by an offence under these Regulations may be awarded by a court fixing the penalty for the offence and, where so awarded, may be recovered in the same manner as a pecuniary penalty.
