11. The fee for a permit to operate as a bookmaker at any race meeting conducted by a club on any licensed race-course or at any dog-racing meeting conducted by a club on any licensed dog-racing ground shall be Two pounds for each day on which the race meeting or dog-racing meeting is held.

12. A club licensed to establish and use a totalizator shall, while the totalizator is being used, place in charge of the totalizator a person competent to compute dividends, percentages and fractions.

Management of totalizators.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

13.—(1.) A club using a totalizator shall not pay a dividend, or permit a dividend to be paid, except in accordance with this regulation.

Payment of dividend.
Substituted by 1961, No. 15.

(2.) A club using a totalizator may, at the discretion of the committee of the club, pay in respect of a race—

- (a) a first dividend only;
- (b) if five, six or seven horses start in the race, a first dividend and a second dividend; or
- (c) if at least eight horses start in the race, a first dividend, a second dividend and a third dividend.

(3.) Where in a race a dead heat occurs and, but for the dead heat, a second dividend but no third dividend would be payable, the total amount payable as dividends on a horse coming first or second in the race shall be determined by—

- (a) allocating the money available for payment of dividends as follows:—
 - (i) where two or more horses dead heat for first place—one hundred per centum in respect of the horses coming first;
 - (ii) where two or more horses dead heat for second place—seventy-five per centum in respect of the horse coming first and twenty-five per centum in respect of the horses coming second; and
- (b) dividing the amount so allocated for horses coming first or second in the race by the number of horses coming first or second place in the race, respectively.

(4.) Where in a race a dead heat occurs and, but for the dead heat a third dividend would be payable, the total amount payable as dividends on a horse coming first, second or third in the race shall be determined by—

- (a) allocating the money available for payment of dividends as follows:—
 - (i) where three or more horses dead heat for first place—one hundred per centum in respect of the horses coming first;
 - (ii) where two horses dead heat for first place—eighty per centum in respect of the horses coming first and twenty per centum in respect of the horse or horses coming third;
 - (iii) where two or more horses dead heat for second place—sixty per centum in respect of the horse coming first and forty per centum in respect of the horses coming second;

(iv) where two or more horses dead heat for third place—
 sixty per centum in respect of the horse coming first, twenty per centum in respect of the horse coming second and twenty per centum in respect of the horses coming third; and

(b) dividing the amount so allocated for horses coming first, second or third in the race by the number of horses coming first, second or third place in the race, respectively.

(5.) Subject to sub-regulations (3.) and (4.) of this regulation, the total amount payable as dividends on a horse coming first, second or third in a race shall be determined by allocating the money available for payment of dividends as follows:—

(a) where a first dividend only is payable—one hundred per centum in respect of the horse coming first;

(b) where a second dividend but no third dividend is payable—seventy-five per centum in respect of the horse coming first and twenty-five per centum in respect of the horse coming second; and

(c) where a third dividend is payable—sixty per centum in respect of the horse coming first, twenty per centum in respect of the horse coming second and twenty per centum in respect of the horse coming third.

(6.) Immediately after the dividends payable in respect of each race are known, the club shall post those dividends, or cause them to be posted, on a board outside each totalizator building.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

Totalizator
 tickets.

14. A club shall not use any totalizator ticket which does not comply with the following conditions:—

(a) The tickets shall be of a value of not less than Two shillings
 or more than One pound;

(b) The ticket shall have printed on the face thereof—

(i) the number of the race;

(ii) the name of the club using the totalizator;

(iii) the name of the horse on which the ticket is issued;

(iv) the number of the ticket issued; and

(v) the words “ Issued in accordance with the provisions of the Lottery and Gaming Ordinance 1940 and the Regulations thereunder ”.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

Inspectors.

15. A club shall not operate, or permit to be operated, a totalizator unless an inspector is on duty in the totalizator building to supervise the operation of the totalizator.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

Settlement of betting disputes
 and claims.

Substituted by 1964, No. 12.

16.—(1.) All matters relating to disputes in connexion with bets made on the totalizator shall be dealt with by the stewards of the club.

(2.) A person referring a dispute to the Board in accordance with the provisions of section 94A1 of the Ordinance shall submit particulars of the dispute in writing to the Board not more than seven days after the event in respect of which the dispute occurred.

(3.) A person making a claim to the Board in respect of a winning bet that has not been paid to him by the licensed bookmaker who accepted the bet shall submit particulars of his claim in writing to the Board not less than three nor more than seven days after the event in respect of which the bet was accepted.

(4.) A licence in respect of a dog-racing ground may be in accordance with Form 7 in the Schedule to these Regulations.

(5.) A licence in respect of a dog-racing ground shall continue in force until the thirty-first day of December in the year in which it is granted or in which it is renewed, as the case may be, but no longer.

(6.) The Administrator may, for any good cause, cancel any licence granted or renewed under this regulation.

19.—(1.) An application for a licence for dog-racing shall be in writing signed by the applicant and addressed to the Administrator and may be in accordance with Form 8 in the Schedule to these Regulations.

Licences for dog-racing.
Inserted by 1961, No. 15.

(2.) The fee for such a licence shall be One pound.

(3.) A licence for dog-racing may be in accordance with Form 9 in the Schedule to these Regulations.

20. A principal club shall not register a racing club under the rules of racing unless—

Club to submit rules to Administrator.

(a) the racing club has submitted the club's rules to the Administrator; and

Inserted by 1962, No. 16.

(b) the Administrator has approved the club's rules.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

21. Where a registered racing club alters or rescinds any of its rules or adds a new rule to its rules the alteration, rescission or addition shall not come into operation unless and until the Administrator approves of the alteration, rescission or addition.

Racing clubs not to alter rules without Administrator's approval.
Inserted by 1962, N . 16.

Appeals.
Inserted by 1962, No. 16.

22.—(1.) An appeal by a racing club under sub-section (5.) of section seventy-one c of the Lottery and Gaming Ordinance 1940-1962 shall be instituted by delivery of a notice of appeal in accordance with the next succeeding sub-regulation.

(2.) A notice of appeal shall—

(a) be in writing; and

(b) be delivered to the Administrator and to the principal club concerned within 28 days of the date of the refusal of the principal club to register or to renew the registration of the appellant racing club or of the revocation of the registration of the appellant racing club.

(3.) Where an appeal has been instituted in accordance with the last preceding regulation the Administrator shall—

(a) within fourteen days of the date of delivery to him of the notice of appeal appoint a date, time and place for the hearing of the appeal and notify the appellant and the principal racing club concerned of the date, time and place so appointed; and

(b) hear and determine the appeal.

(4.) The appellant racing club and the principal club may appear on the hearing of the appeal and may be represented by counsel.

(5.) Where the Administrator has allowed an appeal instituted under sub-section (5.) of section seventy-one of the Lottery and Gaming Ordinance 1940-1962 the principal club shall within fourteen days of the decision of the Administrator register or renew the registration of or cancel the revocation of the registration of the appellant racing club as the case may be.
