No. 483.

An Act to amend the "Civil Service Amendment Act, 1881."

[Assented to, December 23rd, 1890.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the "Civil Service Amendment Act, 1881"—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. The last proviso to section 4 of the "Civil Service Amendment Act, 1881," is hereby repealed, and the said section shall be read and construed as if there had been added thereto, in lieu of the said proviso, the proviso following:—"Provided also that the amount of interest payable under this clause in any case shall not exceed the amount which would have accrued as compensation for service subsequent to the said thirty-first day of December if this Act had not been passed, and the officer had continued until his death, removal, or resignation to serve at the salary upon which his retiring allowance is to be calculated as aforesaid." Proviso to section 4 of "Civil Service Amendment Act, 1881."

2. Part VII. of the "Civil Service Act, 1874," shall apply to all non-classified officers who may be entitled to claim an allowance on retirement. Part VII. of "Civil Service Act, 1874," to apply.

3. Section 4 of Act No. 231 of 1881 is hereby amended, and the said section shall hereafter be read as if the words "except misconduct" Amendment of section 4 of Act No. 231 of 1881.
