

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO ET QUINQUAGESIMO OCTAVO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1894.

No. 607.

An Act to amend the Civil Service Act of 1874 and the Civil Service Amendment Act of 1881.

[Assented to, December 21st, 1894.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Civil Service Act of 1874, and the Civil Service Act of 1881—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. Leave of absence may be granted, pursuant to the “Civil Service Amendment Act, 1881,” to any person in the employ of the South Australian Government, excluding persons in the service of the South Australian railways, on the provisional and temporary list; but so that such leave shall only be granted on account of service subsequent to the passing of this Act. Leave of absence.

2. This Act may be cited as “The Civil Service Amendment Act of 1894.” Short title.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.
