

ANNO TRICESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1868.

No. 1.

An Act further to amend "The Lunatics Act, 1864."

[Assented to, 24th November, 1868.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Lunatics Act, 1864," Preamble.
by authorizing the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council, to appoint the Resident Medical Officer for the time being of the Adelaide Lunatic Asylum, to act as the Resident Medical Officer of such other Lunatic Asylums to be hereafter proclaimed under the provisions of the said Act as to the said Governor with the advice aforesaid may seem expedient—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. This Act and the said "The Lunatics Act, 1864," shall be Incorporation.
incorporated and read together as forming one Act.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said "The Lunatics Act, 1864," or "The Lunatics Act 1865-6," to the contrary, the Governor may with the advice of the Executive Council, appoint the Resident Medical Officer for the time being of the Adelaide Lunatic Asylum, to act as the Resident Medical Officer of any other Lunatic Asylum hereafter to be proclaimed, under the said "The Lunatics Act, 1864," and thereupon, and until the Governor with the advice aforesaid, shall otherwise order, such Resident Medical Officer shall, in addition to his other duties, perform all the duties, and have and exercise in respect to such last-mentioned Asylum Resident Medical Officer of Adelaide Lunatic Asylum may be appointed to act as Resident Medical Officer of other Asylums.
(although

Lunatics Act Amendment Act.—1868.

(although not resident therein), all the powers and authorities imposed or conferred by the before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, upon the Resident Medical Officer of any Asylum duly proclaimed thereunder.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

F. G. HAMLEY, Governor.