

ANNO SEXTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1915.

No. 1185.

An Act to amend the Acts authorizing the raising of Moneys by Loan.

[Assented to, July 29th, 1915.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Loan Acts Amendment Act, 1915." Short title.

2. This Act shall have the same effect as if it had been passed on the first day of May, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and shall continue in force until the thirty-first day of July, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and no longer. Commencement and duration of Act.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act now in force authorizing the raising of any money by loan, the Treasurer of the said State may raise such money by the issue of inscribed stock or Treasury Bills or any other form of Government security, and such stock, bills, or other securities may bear interest at rates exceeding Four Pounds per centum per annum. Manner of raising loans and rate of interest.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

H. L. GALWAY, Governor.
