

ANNO OCTAVO

GEORGII VI REGIS.

A.D. 1944.

No. 27 of 1944.

An Act to provide for the establishment and management of forests by municipal and district councils, and for incidental purposes.

[Assented to 14th December, 1944.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Local Government (Forestry Reserves) Act, 1944". Short title.

2. In this Act—

Interpretation.

"council" means municipal council or district council:

"Minister" means the Minister of the Crown to whom for the time being the administration of this Act is committed by the Governor.

3. (1) The Governor may by proclamation made on the recommendation of the Conservator of Forests declare—

Power to declare local government forestry reserves.

(a) any Crown land which has been dedicated or reserved as a forestry reserve or for forestry purposes and placed under the care, control and management of a council:

(b) any land of a council the use of which is not restricted by any trust, dedication, reservation or condition or which, if so restricted, may pursuant to such trust, dedication, reservation or condition, be used for forestry purposes, to be a local government forestry reserve for the purposes of this Act.

1944. Local Government (Forestry Reserves) No. 27
Act, 1944.

(2) The Governor may by proclamation made on the recommendation of the Conservator of Forests revoke or vary any such proclamation.

(3) Whilst any land is comprised in a local government forestry reserve it shall be used only for forestry purposes and for purposes incidental to forestry purposes.

Power of council to establish forest.

4. (1) A council may establish and manage a forest on any local government forestry reserve.

(2) A council may expend any moneys of the council for the purpose of establishing or managing any such forest or for any incidental purpose.

Power to make advances to councils for forestry purposes.

5. (1) From moneys provided by Parliament for the purpose, the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Conservator of Forests, from time to time make advances to any council for the purpose of the establishment or management by the council of a forest pursuant to this Act. Any such advance may be made to the council without obtaining the consent of the ratepayers of the council.

(2) Every such advance shall be free of interest and shall, subject to section 6, be repaid by the council in such manner as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Conservator of Forests, from time to time directs. Every such advance shall be made upon such other conditions as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Conservator of Forests, from time to time directs and shall be made upon the condition that the amount advanced shall be expended by the council in accordance with any directions given to the council by the Conservator of Forests.

Provision as to management of forest.

6. (1) The council shall, subject to this Act, undertake the management of any forest established by the council and may sell or otherwise dispose of any timber or other products derived from the forest.

(2) The proceeds of the sale of any such timber or other products and any other revenue derived by the council from the local government forestry reserve shall be applied by the council—

- (a) firstly, in payment of the expenses incurred by the council in the management of the forest;
- (b) secondly, in repayment of any advance made to the council pursuant to section 5;

- (c) thirdly, in making such provision as is necessary to comply with any direction of the Conservator of Forests for the replanting of the forest.

Any surplus may be paid into the general revenue of the council.

(3) If any advance is made to a council pursuant to section 5, the council shall not be obliged to make any repayment of the advance except from the proceeds of the sale of timber or other products as aforesaid or from other revenue derived as aforesaid.

7. (1) The Conservator of Forests may advise any council as to the establishment or management of any forest and the disposal of timber or other products derived from the forest.

Powers of Conservator of Forests.

(2) If any advance is made to a council pursuant to section 5 for the establishment or management of any forest, the Conservator of Forests shall from time to time give all necessary directions to the council for the purpose of the establishment and management of the forest, the employment of persons necessary for the establishment or management of the forest, the expenditure by the council of the advance made to the council, the disposal of the timber and other products from the forest, the replanting of the forest, and generally respecting the use of the local government forestry reserve. The council shall carry out all such directions.

8. (1) The Governor, on the recommendation of the Conservator of Forests, may make regulations—

Regulations.

- (a) prescribing measures to be taken by councils for the management and protection of forests established pursuant to this Act and the disposal of timber or other products derived from such forests;
- (b) prescribing the manner of use of local government forestry reserves;
- (c) prescribing the manner in which directions may be given by the Conservator of Forests pursuant to section 5 or section 7 and any measures necessary to secure that such directions are carried out by councils;
- (d) for preventing the spread of fires to or in forests established pursuant to this Act;
- (e) prescribing penalties not exceeding fifty pounds for the breach of any regulation.

1944. Local Government (Forestry Reserves) No. 27
Act, 1944.

---

(2) Any such regulations may be made to apply generally throughout the State or may be limited to specified parts of the State.

Money for purpose of Act.

9. The moneys required for the purpose of making advances pursuant to this Act or for the purpose of enabling the Conservator of Forests to execute the provisions of this Act shall be provided out of moneys voted by Parliament for the purpose.

Summary proceedings for offences.

10. Any proceedings for any offence against this Act shall be disposed of summarily.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

J. M. NAPIER, Lieutenant-Governor.
