14, 1866-7, s. 25.
3 and 4 Will. 4, c. 27, s. 22.

24. Where a tenant in tail of any land or rent entitled to recover that land or rent has died before the expiration of the period limited by this Act and applicable to the case, no person claiming any estate interest or right which the tenant in tail might lawfully have barred shall make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover the land or rent but within the period during which, if the tenant in tail had so long continued to live, he might have made that entry or distress or brought that action.

Concealed fraud.
14, 1866-7, s. 27.
3 and 4 Will. 4, c. 27, s. 26.

25. (1) In every case of a concealed fraud, the right of any person to bring equitable proceedings for the recovery of any land or rent of which he or any person through whom he claims has been deprived by that fraud shall be deemed to have first accrued at and not before the time when that fraud was or with reasonable diligence might have been first known or discovered: Provided that nothing in this section shall enable any owner of lands or rents to bring equitable proceedings for the recovery of those lands or rents on account of fraud against any bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration, who has not assisted in the commission of that fraud and who at the time when he made the purchase did not know and had no reason to believe that any such fraud had been committed.

(2) In this section "equitable proceedings" means any proceedings of a kind which before the passing of the Supreme Court Act, 1878 could have been brought by way of a suit in equity.

Saving jurisdiction of equity.
14, 1866-7, s. 28.
U.K. 3 and 4 Will. 4, c. 27, s. 27.

26. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to interfere with any rule or jurisdiction of courts of equity in refusing relief on the ground of acquiescence or otherwise to any person whose right to bring a suit may not be barred by virtue of this Act.

Limitation of Actions Act.—1936.

27. (1) When a mortgagee has obtained the possession or receipt of the profits of any land or the receipt of any rent comprised in his mortgage, the mortgagor or any person claiming through him shall not bring an action to redeem the mortgage but within twenty years next after the time at which the mortgagee obtained such possession or receipt, unless in the meantime an acknowledgment of the title of the mortgagor or his right of redemption has been given to the mortgagor or some person claiming his estate or to the agent of the mortgagor or of that person in writing signed by the mortgagee or other person claiming through him.

mortgagor
barred.
14, 1866-7,
s. 29.
U.K. 3 and 4
Will. 4, c. 27,
s. 28.

(2) If such an acknowledgment has been given no such action shall be brought but within twenty years next after the time at which that acknowledgment or the last of those acknowledgments if more than one, was given.

(3) When there is more than one mortgagor or more than one person claiming through the mortgagor or mortgagors, such an acknowledgment if given to any of those mortgagors or persons or his or their agent shall be as effectual as if it had been given to all such mortgagors or persons.

(4) Where there is more than one mortgagee or more than one person claiming the estate or interest of the mortgagee or mortgagees such an acknowledgment signed by one or more of those mortgagees or persons—

(a) shall be effectual only as against a party signing as aforesaid and a person claiming any part of the mortgage money or land or rent by from or under him and any person entitled to any estate or interest to take effect after or in defeasance of his estate or interest; and

(b) shall not operate to give to the mortgagor or mortgagors a right to redeem the mortgage as against any person entitled to any other undivided or divided part of the money or land or rent.

(5) Where any mortgagee or any such person as aforesaid has given such an acknowledgment and is entitled to a divided part of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage or some estate or interest therein and not to any ascertained part of the mortgage money, the mortgagor or mortgagors shall be entitled to redeem the same divided part of the land or rent on payment with interest of the part of the mortgage money which bears the same proportion to the whole of the mortgage money as the value of that divided part of the land or rent bears to the value of the whole of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage.

Claims for trust property or breach of trust.

Application of Act to express trusts.
586, 1893,
s. 45.

31. Subject to the next following section—

(a) where any land or rent is vested in a trustee on any express trust, the right of the beneficiary or any person claiming through him, to bring an action against the trustee or any person claiming through him, to recover the land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued at, and not before, the time at which the land or rent has been conveyed to a purchaser for a valuable consideration, and shall then be deemed to have accrued only as against that purchaser and any person claiming through him :

(b) no claim of a beneficiary against his trustee, in respect of any property held on an express trust, or in respect of any breach of an express trust, shall, subject to the next following subsection, be barred by any statute of limitations :

(c) no action or other proceeding shall be brought to recover any sum of money or legacy charged upon or payable out of any land or rent and secured by an express trust, or to recover any arrears of rent or of interest in respect of any sum of money or legacy so charged or payable and so secured, or any damages in respect of such arrears, except within the time within which the money, legacy, or arrears would be recoverable if there were not any such trust.

Limitation of Actions Act.—1936.

32. (1) In any action or other proceeding against a trustee or any person claiming through him, except where the claim is founded on any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust to which the trustee was party or privy, or is to recover trust property, or the proceeds thereof still retained by the trustee, or previously received by the trustee and converted to his use, the following provisions shall apply :—

Further provisions as to application of Act to trusts. 586, 1893, s. 46.

(a) All rights and privileges conferred by this Act shall be enjoyed in the like manner and to the like extent as they would have been enjoyed in the action or other proceeding if the trustee or person claiming through him had not been a trustee or person claiming through him.

(b) If the action or other proceeding is brought to recover money or other property, and is one to which no other provision of this Act applies, the trustee or person claiming through him shall be entitled to the benefit of and be at liberty to plead lapse of time as a bar to the action or other proceeding, in the like manner and to the like extent as if the action or other proceeding had been an action for money had and received ; and that so this Act shall run against a married woman entitled in possession for her separate use, whether with or without a restraint upon anticipation, but shall not begin to run against any beneficiary unless and until the interest of such beneficiary is an interest in possession.

(2) No beneficiary, as against whom there would be a good defence by virtue of this section, shall derive any greater or other benefit from a judgment or order obtained by another beneficiary than he could have obtained if he had brought the action or other proceedings in which the judgment or order was obtained and this section had been pleaded.

(3) This section shall apply only to actions or other proceedings begun after the twenty-third of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and shall not deprive any executor or administrator of any right or defence to which he was then entitled under any then existing statute of limitations.

Recovery of money charged on land and legacies.

33. (1) No action or other proceeding shall be brought to recover any money secured by any mortgage judgment or lien or otherwise charged upon any land or rent at law or in equity or any legacy but within twenty years next after a present right to receive that money has accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for or release of the money, unless in the
