

ANNO TRICESIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1871.

No. 3.

An Act to amend "The Northern Territory Amendment Act, 1868."

[Assented to, 26th October, 1871.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the time prescribed in Preamble.
"The Northern Territory Amendment Act, 1868," during which selection may be made of the surveyed country lands in the said Territory—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. All persons who have, from any cause whatever, neglected to forward to the Commissioner of Crown Lands and Immigration a notice in writing, within the time fixed by "The Northern Territory Act, 1868," being Act No. 3 of 1868; and who have heretofore given, or who shall, before the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, give notice in writing, of their desire to accept the increased area granted by the said Act, shall for every land order issued under "The Northern Territory Act," and held by them, be entitled to select an area of three hundred and twenty acres of country lands and one town lot in lieu of one hundred and sixty acres of country land, and one town lot to which they would otherwise be entitled. Provided that such persons shall be entitled to select the same without ballot from such country Persons to have the advantages of Act No. 3 of 1868.
lands

Northern Territory Amendment Act—1871.

lands and town lots only as at the time of applying to make such selection shall be surveyed and remain unselected. Provided also, that in the case of simultaneous applications for the same section or lot, the right of priority of selection shall be decided by lot.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor,