

ANNO SEXAGESIMO PRIMO ET SEXAGESIMO
SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1898.

No. 708.

An Act relating to Noisy Trades.

[Assented to, December 23rd, 1898.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Noisy Trades Act, 1898" Short title.

2. In this Act— Definition.

"Noisy trades" includes the trades of wood-cutting and of boiler-making, and also any trades declared by Proclamation to be noisy trades:

"Proclamation" means Proclamation by the Governor in the Government Gazette.

3. Proclamations under this Act shall only issue upon the petition of a Municipal Corporation or District Council, and shall only have effect within the municipality or district petitioning and mentioned in the Proclamation. Proclamation.

4. The powers respectively conferred upon Municipal Corporations and District Councils by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1890," and "The District Councils Act, 1887," in relation to the making, altering, or repealing by-laws shall extend to the making, altering, or repealing by-laws in respect of the following matters:— Regulation of noisy trades.

i. For the prevention of noisy trades being carried on except by licensed persons:

ii. For

The Noisy Trades Act.—1898.

- ii. For the regulation of noisy trades with a view to the prevention of annoyance to neighboring occupiers:
- iii. For the inspection of the premises whereon such trades are carried on.

Exemption from licence.

5. No licence shall be required for the carrying on of noisy trades where the premises whereon the same are carried on are not within two hundred yards from the nearest dwelling-house, or are not within any less distance that may be fixed by by-law.

Exemption from liability if by-laws complied with.

6. No noisy trade carried on, pursuant to the preceding section or in accordance with the by-laws in force in that behalf, shall, on account of the noise thereof, be deemed a nuisance, or subject any person carrying on the same to any proceedings, civil or criminal.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

S. J. WAY, Lieutenant-Governor.
