

ANNO UNDECIMO

GEORGI VI REGIS.

A.D. 1947.

*****

No. 42 of 1947.

An Act relating to salaries, fees and other remuneration payable to members of statutory bodies.

[Assented to 11th December, 1947.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Statutory Salaries and Fees Act, 1947".

Interpretation.

2. In this Act—

"board" means any body of persons corporate or uncorporate which is—

- (a) established or appointed by or pursuant to any Act, whether passed before or after the passing of this Act; and
- (b) charged by any enactment with the duty of administering statutory provisions, or of conducting inquiries but does not include a company, friendly society, building society, industrial and provident society, or other body formed pursuant to general statutory provisions providing for the formation of such bodies :

"remuneration" includes salary, fees and remuneration of any kind, and any amount fixed by law as the maximum amount of the salary, fees or other remuneration payable to any or all of the members of a board.

3. (1) Where any Act, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, prescribes the remuneration of the members of a board, but makes no provision for varying that remuneration, the Governor may make regulations under this Act with respect to that remuneration, and the remuneration as prescribed by those regulations shall be deemed to be the remuneration prescribed by the first-mentioned Act. Power to vary remuneration.

(2) Any regulation made under this Act—

- (a) may alter the amount, rate, or mode of computing any remuneration, and the intervals at which it is payable :
- (b) may prescribe fees in lieu of salary, or salary in lieu of fees :
- (c) may prescribe or alter the conditions on which any remuneration is payable :
- (d) may apply to the remuneration prescribed by any one or more Acts.

4. (1) Any remuneration altered by regulation under this Act shall be paid by the same persons and from the same fund as before the alteration. Payment of altered remuneration.

(2) This Act, without further appropriation, shall be sufficient authority to pay from the General Revenue of the State or from any other funds, any money which is properly payable out of the General Revenue of the State and is required for the purpose of giving effect to regulations under this Act.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor.
