

AMBULANCE.

No. 55 of 1962.

AN ACT to amend the Ambulance Act 1959.

[11 December 1962.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Ambulance Act 1962. Short title and citation.

(2) The Ambulance Act 1959, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section thirty-seven of the Principal Act is amended— Charges for conveyance.

(a) by inserting after subsection (8) the following subsections:—

“(8AA) Subject to subsection (8AB) of this section, but notwithstanding any other provisions in this section, a board or the council of a municipal district shall remit any charge which it is otherwise authorized to recover under this section for the conveyance of a pensioner or the spouse of a pensioner, or any person who is under the age of eighteen years of age and is the child of a pensioner or the spouse of a pensioner, if it is satisfied the conveyance of that person constituted a reasonable and proper use of the services provided under this Act.

“(8AB) Subsection (8AA) of this section does not apply where the charge for the conveyance of a person is, by virtue of the Repatriation Act or any action taken thereunder, borne otherwise than by that person or any other person from whom it could be recovered under this section.”; and

(b) by adding at the end of the section the following subsections:—

“(11) In this section ‘pensioner’ means a person who is in receipt of—

(a) a pension under the Superannuation Act 1938;

(b) a pension under the Social Services Act;
or

(c) a pension payable to a dependant under the Repatriation Act or a service pension payable under that Act, and the total of whose income (including any such pension) does not exceed the sum of—

(d) the maximum pension payable to any one person under the Social Services Act; and

(e) the maximum income that a person in receipt of an age pension under that Act may receive, otherwise than by way of pension, without thereby incurring any reduction in the rate of that age pension.

“(12) For the purposes of this section—

‘Repatriation Act’ means the Repatriation Act 1920-1960 of the Commonwealth and any Act of the Commonwealth amending or passed in substitution of that Act; and ‘Social Services Act’ means the Social Services Act 1947-1960 of the Commonwealth and any Act of the Commonwealth amending or passed in substitution of that Act.”

Proceedings,
&c., of Commission and boards.

3 Section forty-four of the Principal Act is amended by inserting in subsection (3), after the word “absence”, the words “or if there is no person entitled to act as chairman of the authority,”.

Schedule.

4 The schedule to the Principal Act is amended by inserting in paragraph 5, after the word “appointment”, the words “and term of office”.
