ANNO QUADRAGESIMO-QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 27.

AN ACT to amend the Law as to the Qualification of the Judges of the Supreme Court. A. D. 1880.
[1 November, 1880.]

WHEREAS the office of Judge of the Supreme Court of Tasmania can, under the present Law, be held only by Barristers in England or Ireland; and it is desirable to extend the period of standing at the Bar necessary to qualify such persons for the said office, and to render Barristers of the Supreme Court of this Colony also eligible for the said office: PREAMBLE.

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 The office of any Judge of the Supreme Court of Tasmania may be held by a Barrister of the said Court who is of the age of Forty years and upwards, and of not less than Fifteen years standing at the Bar of the said Supreme Court. Barristers of Supreme Court eligible for office of Judge.

2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Charter of Justice, no Barrister in England or Ireland shall be eligible for the office of Judge of the said Court who is not of the age of Forty years and upwards and of Fifteen years standing at the Bar. Barristers in England or Ireland to be of 15 years standing.
