ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO-SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 44.

AN ACT to appropriate the proceeds of the A.D. 1892.
Sale of certain Land for and towards the Construction of certain Buildings.
[21 December, 1892.]

WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto was purchased for a Post and Telegraph Office site out of moneys voted by Parliament for "Post and Telegraph Offices generally," and is not now required for that purpose :

And whereas the Commissioner of Crown Lands is about to sell the said land as Crown Land, and it is desirable that the proceeds of the said land should be appropriated for and towards the construction of Post and Telegraph Offices :

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1 It shall be lawful for the Minister of Lands and Works, out of the proceeds to be derived from the sale of the land described in the Schedule hereto, to cause to be constructed or completed any building or buildings to be used as a Post and Telegraph Office or a Post or Telegraph Office. Minister may construct buildings out of proceeds of land.
