54 Whosoever shall make or manufacture, or knowingly have in his possession, any gunpowder or other explosive substance, or any dangerous or noxious thing, or any machine, engine, instrument, or thing, with intent thereby or by means thereof to commit, or for the purpose of enabling any other person to commit, any of the Felonies in this Act mentioned, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned for Two years.

Making or having gunpowder, &c. with intent to commit any Felony against this Act.

55 Any Justice of the Peace may, upon reasonable cause assigned upon Oath by any person, issue a warrant under his hand and seal for searching for any machine, engine, implement, or thing, or any gunpowder or other explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, in the daytime, any house, mill, magazine, storehouse, warehouse, shop, cellar, yard, wharf, or other place, or any carriage, waggon, cart, ship, boat, or vessel, in which the same is suspected to be made, kept, or carried for the purpose of being used in committing any of the Felonies in this Act mentioned; and every person acting in the execution of any such warrant shall seize every such machine, engine, implement, and thing, and all such gunpowder and substances as aforesaid, which he may find upon such search, and which he shall have good cause to suspect to be intended to be used in committing any such offence, and also the barrels, packages, and other receptacles in which the same shall be found to be made, kept, or carried contrary to this Act, and shall convey everything so seized with all convenient speed after the seizure, to some proper place and there detain the same, and the barrels or other receptacles in which the same shall be, till it shall be adjudged on a hearing before two or more Justices, whether the same shall be forfeited; and any two such Justices are hereby empowered to hear and determine whether the same shall or shall not be forfeited; and such searcher or seizer shall not be liable to any suit for such detainer, or for any loss of or damage which may happen to anything seized other than by his wilful act or neglect: Provided that where anything is seized under this provision, proceedings for the forfeiture thereof shall be commenced within Twenty-eight days after such seizure.

Justices may issue warrants, &c. for searching houses, &c. for such gunpowder, &c.

Other Matters.

56 In the case of every Felony punishable under this Act, every principal in the second degree, and every accessory before the fact, shall be punishable in the same manner as the principal in the first degree is by this Act punishable; and every accessory after the fact to any felony punishable under this Act shall on conviction be liable to Principals in the second degree and accessories.

Abettors in misdemeanors.

be imprisoned for Two years; and every person who shall aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of any Misdemeanor punishable under this Act shall be liable to be proceeded against, tried, and punished as a principal offender.

A person loitering at night and suspected of any felony against this Act may be apprehended.

57 Any constable or peace officer may take into custody, without warrant, any person whom he shall find lying or loitering in any highway, yard, or other place during the night, and whom he shall have good cause to suspect of having committed or being about to commit any Felony against this Act, and shall take such person as soon as reasonably may be before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to law.

Malice against owner of property unnecessary.

58 Every punishment and forfeiture by this Act imposed on any person maliciously committing any offence, whether the same be punishable upon information to be filed in any Superior Court or upon summary conviction, shall equally apply and be enforced, whether the offence shall be committed from malice conceived against the owner of the property in respect of which it shall be committed or otherwise.

Provisions of this Act shall apply to persons in possession of the property injured.

59 Every provision of this Act not hereinbefore so applied shall apply to every person who, with intent to injure or defraud any other person, shall do any of the acts hereinbefore made penal, although the offender shall be in possession of the property against or in respect of which such act shall be done.

Intent to injure or defraud particular persons need not be stated in any information.

60 It shall be sufficient in any information for any offence against this Act, where it shall be necessary to allege an intent to injure or defraud, to allege that the party accused did the act with intent to injure or defraud (as the case may be), without alleging an intent to injure or defraud any particular person; and on the trial of any such offence it shall not be necessary to prove an intent to injure or defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the party accused did the act charged with an intent to injure or defraud (as the case may be).

Persons in the act of committing any offence may be apprehended without a warrant.

61 Any person found committing any offence against this Act, whether the same be punishable upon information to be filed in any Superior Court or upon summary conviction, may be immediately apprehended, without a warrant, by any peace officer, or the owner of the property injured, or his servant, or any person authorized by him, and forthwith taken before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to law.

Summary Conviction.

Mode of compelling the appearance of persons punishable on summary conviction.

62 Where any person shall be charged on the Oath of a credible witness before any Justice of the Peace with any offence punishable on summary conviction under this Act, the Justice may summon the person charged to appear at a time and place to be named in such summons; and if he shall not appear accordingly, then (upon proof of the due service of the summons upon such person by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his usual place of abode,) the Justice may either proceed to hear and determine the case ex parte, or issue his warrant for apprehending such person and bringing him before himself or some other Justice of the Peace; or the Justice before whom the charge shall be made may (if he shall so think fit) without any previous summons (unless where otherwise specially directed), issue such warrant; and the Justice before whom the person charged shall appear or be brought shall proceed to hear and determine the case.

63 Whosoever shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the commission of any offence which is by this Act punishable on summary conviction, either for every time of its commission, or for the first and second time only, or for the first time only, shall, on conviction before any Two Justices of the Peace, be liable, for every first, second, or subsequent offence of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring, to the same forfeiture and punishment to which a person guilty of a first, second, or subsequent offence as a principal offender is by this Act made liable.

Abettors in offences punishable on summary conviction.

64 Every sum of money which shall be forfeited for the amount of any injury done shall be assessed in each case by the convicting Justice, and shall be paid to the party aggrieved, except where he is unknown, and in that case such sum shall be applied in the same manner as a penalty; and every sum which shall be imposed as a penalty by any Justice of the Peace, whether in addition to such amount or otherwise, shall be paid and applied in the same manner as other penalties recoverable before Justices of the Peace are to be paid and applied in cases where the law imposing the same contains no directions for the payment thereof to any person: Provided that where several persons shall join in the commission of the same offence, and shall, upon conviction thereof, each be adjudged to forfeit a sum equivalent to the amount of the injury done, in every such case no further sum shall be paid to the party aggrieved than such value or amount; and the remaining sum or sums forfeited shall be applied in the same manner as any penalty imposed by a Justice of the Peace is hereinbefore directed to be applied.

Application of forfeitures and penalties upon summary convictions.

Proviso where several persons join in commission of same offence.

65 In every case of a summary conviction under this Act, where the sum which shall be forfeited for the amount of the injury done, or which shall be imposed as a penalty by the Justice or Justices, shall not be paid, either immediately after the conviction, or within such period as the Justice or Justices shall, at the time of the conviction, appoint, the convicting Justice or Justices (unless where otherwise specially directed) may commit the offender to any gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned for Two months, where the amount of the sum forfeited, or of the penalty imposed, or of both, (as the case may be,) together with the costs, shall not exceed Five Pounds; and for any term not exceeding Four months where the amount, with costs, shall not exceed Ten Pounds; and for any term not exceeding Six months in any other case; the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount and costs.

If a person summarily convicted shall not pay, &c. the Justice may commit him.

66 Where any person shall be summarily convicted before a Justice or Justices of the Peace of any offence against this Act, and it shall be a first conviction, the Justice or Justices may, if he shall so think fit, discharge the offender from his conviction upon his making such satisfaction to the party aggrieved for damages and costs, or either of them, as shall be ascertained by the Justice or Justices.

The Justice may discharge the offender in certain cases.

67 When any person convicted of any offence punishable upon summary conviction by virtue of this Act shall have paid the sum adjudged to be paid, together with costs, under such conviction, or shall have received a remission thereof from the Crown, or shall have suffered the imprisonment awarded for non-payment thereof, or the imprisonment awarded in the first instance, or shall have been so discharged from his conviction by any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, he shall be released from all further or other proceedings for the same cause.

Conviction a bar to other proceedings for the same cause.

Appeal.

68 In all cases where the sum adjudged to be paid on any summary conviction shall exceed Five Pounds, or the imprisonment adjudged shall exceed One month, or the conviction shall take place before one Justice only, any person who shall think himself aggrieved by any such conviction may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions which shall be holden not less than Sixteen days after the day of such conviction, for the rural municipality, district, or place wherein the cause of complaint shall have arisen; Provided that such person shall give to the complainant a notice in writing of such appeal, and of the cause and matter thereof, within Eight days after such conviction, and seven clear days at the least before such Sessions, and shall also either remain in custody until the Sessions, or shall enter into a recognizance, with two sufficient sureties, before a Justice of the Peace, conditioned personally to appear at the said Sessions and to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such costs as shall be by the Court awarded; or if such appeal shall be against any conviction whereby only a penalty or sum of money shall be adjudged to be paid, shall deposit with the Clerk of Petty Sessions such a sum of money as such Justice shall deem to be sufficient to cover the sum so adjudged to be paid, together with the costs of the conviction; and upon such notice being given, and such recognizance being entered into, or such deposit being made, the Justice before whom such recognizance shall be entered into, or such deposit shall be made, shall liberate such person if in custody; and the Court at such Sessions shall hear and determine the matter of the appeal, and shall make such order therein, with or without costs to either party, as to the Court shall seem meet; and in case of the dismissal of the appeal, or the affirmance of the conviction, shall order and adjudge the offender to be punished according to the conviction, and to pay such costs as shall be awarded, and shall, if necessary, issue process for enforcing such judgment; and in any case where after any such deposit shall have been made as aforesaid the conviction shall be affirmed, the Court may order the sum thereby adjudged to be paid, together with the costs of the conviction and the costs of the appeal, to be paid out of the money deposited, and the residue thereof, if any, to be repaid to the party convicted; and in any case where after any such deposit the conviction shall be quashed, the Court shall order the money deposited to be repaid to the party convicted; and in every case where any conviction shall be quashed on appeal as aforesaid, the Clerk of the Peace or other proper officer shall forthwith indorse on the conviction a memorandum that the same has been quashed; and whenever any copy or certificate of such conviction shall be made, a copy of such memorandum shall be added thereto, and shall be sufficient evidence that the conviction has been quashed in every case where such copy or certificate would be sufficient evidence of such conviction.

No Certiorari,
&c.

69 No such conviction, or adjudication made on appeal therefrom, shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by Certiorari into the Supreme Court; and no warrant of commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid conviction to sustain the same

70 The Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this Act shall transmit the conviction to the Clerk of the Peace or Deputy Clerk of the Peace for the rural municipality, district, or place wherein the offence shall have been committed, there to be kept by him among the records of the Court of General Sessions of such rural municipality, district, or place; and upon the trial of any person upon any information for a subsequent offence, a copy of such conviction certified by the Clerk or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, or proved to be a true copy, shall be sufficient evidence to prove a conviction for the former offence, and the conviction shall be presumed to have been unappealed against until the contrary be shown.

Convictions to be returned to the next Sessions.

How far evidence in future cases.

71 All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against any person for anything done in pursuance of this Act shall be commenced within Three months after the fact committed, and not otherwise; and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the defendant One month at least before the commencement of the action; and in any such action the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court after such action brought, by or on behalf of the defendant; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue any such action after issue joined, or if, upon demurrer or otherwise, judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover his full costs as between attorney and client, and have the like remedy for the same as any defendant has by law in other cases; and though a verdict shall be given for the plaintiff in any such action, such plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant, unless the Judge, before whom the trial shall be shall certify his approbation of the action.

Limitations of Actions.

Notice of Action.

General Issue.

72 Whenever any person shall be convicted of any Misdemeanor punishable under this Act, the Court may, if it shall think fit, in addition to or in lieu of any of the punishments by this Act authorised, fine the offender, and require him to enter into his own recognizances, and to find sureties, both or either, for keeping the peace and being of good behaviour; and in case of any felony punishable under this Act, the Court may, if it shall think fit, require the offender to enter into his own recognizances, and to find sureties, both or either, for keeping the peace, in addition to any punishment by this Act authorized: Provided that no person shall be imprisoned under this clause for not finding sureties for any period exceeding One year.

Fine and sureties for keeping the Peace; in what cases.

73 Every offence hereby made punishable on summary conviction may be prosecuted in the manner directed by The Magistrates Summary Procedure Act, so far as no provision is hereby made for any matter or thing which may be required to be done in the course of such prosecution; and all provisions contained in the said Act shall be applicable to such prosecutions in the same manner as if they were incorporated in this Act: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall in any manner alter or affect any enactment relating to the recovery or application of any penalty or forfeiture for any such offence.

Summary Proceedings may be had under 19 Vict. No. 8.

74 When any person is convicted of any offence for which he is liable to be punished under this Act by imprisonment for Life, it shall be lawful for the Court before which such person is convicted to pass sentence on such offender, of imprisonment for Life, or for any term of years not exceeding Twenty ; and when any person is convicted of any offence for which he is liable to be punished under the provisions of this Act by imprisonment for any period, it shall be lawful for the Court or person whose duty it is to pass sentence upon such offender, to pass a sentence of imprisonment for any shorter period.

Mode of passing sentence of imprisonment.

Sentence of imprisonment same as sentence of Penal Servitude.

75 Every sentence of imprisonment passed under the provisions of this Act shall, for the purpose of being carried into effect be deemed and taken to be a sentence of Penal Servitude, and shall have all the incidents attending a sentence of Penal Servitude: Provided, that in case the sentence passed is for a period of imprisonment of less than Two years, the Court, or person passing sentence, may direct that the person sentenced shall not be kept to hard labour, and in every such case the sentence passed shall be carried into effect in the same manner in which a sentence of imprisonment without hard labour is now carried into effect.

Commencement of Act.

76 This Act shall commence and take effect on the First day of September, 1863.
