ANNO TRICESIMO-QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 17.

AN ACT to declare the Principle upon which Land occupied for Mining Purposes shall be assessed. [21 December, 1871.]

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether land which is occupied or used for mining for Gold or Silver should be assessed at a higher rate than other land not so occupied or used, and it is desirable to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

PREAMBLE.

The “rateable value” of any land which is bonâ fide occupied or used for the purpose of obtaining therefrom any Gold or Silver, or any earth, clay, quartz, stone, or other mineral containing Gold or Silver, or having Gold or Silver mixed therein, whether the same is Crown Land held under lease or licence or the property of a subject, shall, for the purpose of any assessment, not be deemed or taken to be inclusive of the value of any Gold or Silver extracted or which may be reasonably expected to be extracted from such land; but the same shall be fixed and have relation only to the annual value of the land itself, with the buildings, machinery, and improvements thereon.

“Rateable value” of land used for mining for Gold or Silver.
