ANNO TRICESIMO-QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 11.

AN ACT to enable the Committees or Joint Committees of both Houses of Parliament to examine Witnesses on their Solemn Declaration in certain Cases. [21 December, 1871.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Committees or Joint Committees of both Houses of Parliament should be enabled to examine Witnesses on their Solemn Declaration in certain Cases : Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

PREAMBLE.

1 Any Select Committee of either House of the Parliament of Tasmania, or any Joint Committee of both Houses of Parliament, to which any matter has been referred by such House or Houses, with power to send for persons and papers, may examine Witnesses upon their Solemn Declaration upon any subject relating to the matter which has been referred to any such Committee or Joint Committee, and for that purpose any such Witness may make before the Chairman of any such Committee or Joint Committee a Declaration in the form in the Schedule.

Select Committees of either House of Parliament may examine Witnesses upon Declaration, and take the same.

2 Any person examined as aforesaid who wilfully gives false evidence shall be liable to the penalties of Perjury.

False evidence Perjury.

SCHEDULE.

I, A. B., solemnly promise and declare that the evidence given by me to this Committee shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

JAMES BARNARD,
GOVERNMENT PRINTER, TASMANIA.
