ANNO TRICESIMO-TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 32.

*****

AN ACT to provide for the Erection of Boundary Fences in the Town of Launceston.

[22 October, 1869.]

WHEREAS it is desirable that The Boundary Fences Act, 1853, shall (amongst other things) affect and be applicable to all lands situate within the Town of Launceston: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

PREAMBLE.

1 The words "or the Town of Launceston," in the Twenty-third Section of the Act of Council of this Island, 17th Victoria, No. 12, are hereby repealed.

17 Vict. No. 12.

2 Where no Fence or no sufficient Fence already exists, it shall be lawful for the Municipal Council of the said Town from time to time, and at all times, to compel the owners of any lands abutting on any street or public place within the same Town to erect and maintain, at their own expense, a substantial Five feet paling Fence or, where the Municipal Council approves, a post and four rail Fence, along the front boundary line or lines of the same lands; and if, after Fourteen days' notice in writing, signed by the Town Clerk, requiring them so to do, such owners neglect or refuse to commence erecting any such Fence, and, when commenced, if they neglect or refuse to complete the same, or, when completed, afterwards to repair, or, when necessary, to re-erect the same within such time as the said Council shall for any such purpose

Council to compel owners of vacant lands to erect Fence.

And in case of neglect, Council to do so at owner's expense.
