ANNO VICESIMO-QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 13.

AN ACT to remove Doubts as to the Validity of the Appointment of Fielding Browne, Esquire, as Substitute for the Commissioner of the Court of Requests at Hobart Town, during his illness. [30 November, 1861.]

WHEREAS Doubts have arisen as to the Validity of the Appointment of Fielding Browne, Esquire, as Substitute to do and execute the duty of Joseph Hone, Esquire, Commissioner of the Court of Requests at Hobart Town, during the inability of the said Joseph Hone, by reason of illness, to perform and execute his duty, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows, that the said Fielding Browne shall, to all intents and purposes, be deemed and taken to have been validly nominated by the Governor and appointed Substitute to do and execute the duty of the said Joseph Hone as Commissioner of the Court of Requests at Hobart Town during the inability of the said Joseph Hone, by reason of illness, to do and execute his duty as such Commissioner; and every act, matter, or thing done, or purporting to have been done by the said Fielding Browne, as Substitute for the said Commissioner, shall be deemed and taken to be done and performed by a legally appointed Substitute of the said Commissioner.

PREAMBLE.

Fielding Browne, Esquire, to be deemed to have been validly appointed Substitute of Commissioner of Court of Requests at Hobart Town.
