ANNO TRICESIMO-QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 28.

AN ACT to vest Portions of certain Streets at Hobart Town in Her Majesty. [18 October, 1870.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that so much of Davey and Dunn-streets, in Hobart Town, as is hereinafter described should cease to be part of such Streets, and should be vested in Her Majesty: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, that so much of Davey and Dunn-streets, in Hobart Town in this Colony, as is described and set forth in the Schedule and delineated in a Plan deposited in the Office of the Minister of Lands and Works, shall, on and after the passing of this Act, become and be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and shall thenceforth cease to be a part of either of the said Streets, and may lawfully be enclosed by walls or otherwise, and appropriated to such purposes as Her Majesty, or the Governor acting on Her Majesty's behalf, shall deem expedient.

SCHEDULE.

Bounded on the south west by 112 feet 2 inches along Davey-street, commencing at a point 55 feet 5 inches distant from the angle formed by that street and Argyle-street and extending to the Bonding Warehouse, thence on the north west by 106 feet 3 inches along that building; thence on the west by 71 feet 3 inches along Davey-street, thence on the north and north east by a line of 89 feet partly straight and partly circular, thence on the south east by 225 feet 8 inches to the point of commencement.

JAMES BARNARD,
GOVERNMENT PRINTER, TASMANIA.
