ALBERT HENRY JACKSON PENSION.

No. 26 of 1972.

AN ACT to amend the Albert Henry Jackson Pension Act 1931.
[9 November 1972.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title, citation, and commencement.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Albert Henry Jackson Pension Act 1972.

(2) The Albert Henry Jackson Pension Act 1931, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) This Act shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of July 1972.

2 Section one A of the Principal Act is repealed.

Interpretation.

3 Section two of the Principal Act is amended—Grant of pension to Albert Henry Jackson.

(a) by omitting from subsection (1) thereof the word "There" and substituting therefor the words "Subject to section two A, there"; and

(b) by omitting from that subsection the words "prescribed rate" and substituting therefor the words "rate of two thousand three hundred and sixty-nine dollars a year".

4 After section two of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

"2A—(1) The pension payable under section two shall be adjusted in each year in accordance with this section.

Annual adjustment of pension.

"(2) As soon as is practicable after the amount of the average wages per person employed in Australia in the period of twelve months ending on the thirty-first day of March in any year has been ascertained in accordance with the provisions of the relevant section of the Commonwealth Act, the Government Statistician shall give to the Treasurer a notice specifying the percentage by which that amount is greater or less than the amount of the average wages per person employed in Australia in the period of twelve months ending on the thirty-first day of March in the preceding year, as so ascertained.

"(3) On receipt of a notice under subsection (2) of this section, the Treasurer shall, by order, declare the percentage by which the pension shall be adjusted (whether by way of increase or decrease) in respect of the year commencing on the first day of July following the expiration of the period first mentioned in that subsection.

"(4) A percentage declared under subsection (3) of this section in respect of any year shall be the same as the percentage specified in the notice given to the Treasurer under subsection (2) of this section.

"(5) An adjustment of the pension in respect of any year made under this section shall be made by increasing, or as the case may require by decreasing, the rate at which, immediately before the making of the adjustment, the pension was payable by the percentage declared in respect of that year under subsection (3) of this section.

"(6) An order under subsection (3) of this section—

(a) is a statutory rule within the meaning of the Rules Publication Act 1953;

(b) takes effect on and from the first day of July in the year in which it is made (whether it is made before or after that day); and

(c) continues in force until it is revoked or amended by a subsequent order under that subsection.

'(7) In this section—

'Commonwealth Act' means the States Grants Act (No. 2) 1971 of the Commonwealth, and includes that Act as amended from time to time and any Commonwealth Act passed in substitution for that Act;

‘relevant section’, in relation to the Commonwealth Act, means section fifteen of that Act, and includes that section as amended from time to time and any section passed in substitution for that section.”.
