AN ACT to provide for the application of certain moneys granted to this State by the Commonwealth for the purposes of Forestry and of certain other Moneys to be borrowed and raised by the Treasurer for the like purposes. [19 August, 1935.]

A.D.
1935.

WHEREAS by section nine of the Loan Appropriation (Unemployment Relief) Act 1934-35 of the Commonwealth it is provided that an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand pounds may be granted to this State by way of financial assistance for the purposes of forestry, subject to the conditions set forth in that Act :

Preamble.

Aid to Forestry (Federal Grant).

A.D. 1935.

And whereas the Federal Treasurer has determined certain conditions under which the moneys to be so granted as aforesaid shall be used by this State, and has approved of a scheme of forestry operations to be carried out with the aid of such moneys and of a further sum of five thousand pounds to be provided by this State :

And whereas, among the conditions so determined by the Federal Treasurer as aforesaid, was a condition that the forestry scheme should be carried out under the general direction of two trustees, one of whom should be appointed by the Commonwealth and the other by the State :

And whereas it is desirable to make provision for the carrying out of the forestry scheme and for the application of the moneys to be so granted and provided as aforesaid :

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

Short title and commencement.

1 This Act may be cited as the Aid to Forestry (Federal Grant) Act 1935, and shall be deemed to have come into force on the fifth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.
