1. Short title and citation.
2. Registration of Business Names.

AN ACT to amend the Business Names Act 1962 to provide for Deputy and Assistant Registrars of Business Names.

[11 December 1975]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Business Names Act 1975. Short title and citation.

(2) The Business Names Act 1962 is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section 4 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (2) and substituting the following subsections:—

“(2) The Governor may appoint such persons as Deputy and Assistant Registrars of Business Names as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of this Act.

“(3) An officer of the Public Service may be appointed as the Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or as an Assistant Registrar of Business Names pursuant to this section and may hold office as Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or as Assistant Registrar of Business Names, as the case may be, in conjunction with his office as an officer of the Public Service.

“(4) Anything authorized or required by or under this Act to be done by the Registrar may be done by a Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar of Business Names appointed under this section and anything so done shall be of the same effect as if it had been done by the Registrar.

“(5) Where by or under this Act any application or other document or any advice or information is required to be lodged with the Registrar, it may be lodged with a Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar of Business Names appointed under this section and such lodging shall be of the same effect as if the lodging had been with the Registrar.”.
