- (b) that the applicant would, if leave were not granted, be unfairly disadvantaged.

(4) A party is entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner or other representative on leave granted under subsection (3), notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary between the parties.

(5) A person not admitted to practise in Tasmania shall not be taken to have committed an offence under or breached the provisions of the Legal Practitioners Act 1959 or any other Act merely by representing a party in arbitration proceedings in Tasmania.

(6) A reference in this section to—

(a) a legal practitioner shall be read as a reference to a person who is admitted or entitled to practise as a barrister, solicitor or legal practitioner in Tasmania or in any other place, whether within or outside Australia; and

(b) a legally qualified person shall be read as a reference to—

(i) such a legal practitioner; or

(ii) a person who, though not such a legal practitioner, has such qualifications or experience in law (whether acquired in Tasmania or in any other place, whether within or outside Australia) as, in the opinion of the arbitrator or umpire, would be likely to afford an advantage in the proceedings.

Consolidation of arbitration proceedings

26—(1) The following provisions of this subsection apply to arbitration proceedings all of which have the same arbitrator or umpire:—

(a) the arbitrator or umpire may, on the application of a party in each of the arbitration proceedings, order—

(i) those proceedings to be consolidated on such terms as the arbitrator or umpire thinks just; or

(ii) those proceedings to be heard at the same time, or one immediately after the other; or

(iii) any of those proceedings to be stayed until after the determination of any of them;

(b) if the arbitrator or umpire refuses or fails to make such an order, the Court may, on application by a party in any of the proceedings, make such an order as could have been made by the arbitrator or umpire.

(2) The following provisions of this subsection apply to arbitration proceedings not all of which have the same arbitrator or umpire:—

- (a) the arbitrator or umpire for any one of the arbitration proceedings may, on the application of a party in the proceeding, provisionally order—
 - (i) the proceeding to be consolidated with other arbitration proceedings on such terms as the arbitrator or umpire thinks just; or
 - (ii) the proceeding to be heard at the same time as other arbitration proceedings, or one immediately after the other; or
 - (iii) any of those proceedings to be stayed until after the determination of any of them;
- (b) an order ceases to be provisional when consistent provisional orders have been made for all of the arbitration proceedings concerned;
- (c) the arbitrators or umpires for arbitration proceedings may communicate with each other for the purpose of conferring on the desirability of making orders under this subsection and of deciding on the terms of any such order;
- (d) if a provisional order is made for at least one of the arbitration proceedings concerned, but the arbitrator or umpire for another of the proceedings refuses or fails to make such an order (having received an application from a party to make such an order), the Court may, on application by a party in any of the proceedings, make an order or orders that could have been made under this subsection;
- (e) if inconsistent provisional orders are made for the arbitration proceedings, the Court may, on application by a party in any of the proceedings, alter the orders to make them consistent.

(3) An order or a provisional order may not be made under this section unless it appears—

- (a) that some common question of law or fact arises in all of the proceedings; or
- (b) that the rights to relief claimed in all of the proceedings are in respect of or arise out of the same transaction or series of transactions; or

(c) that for some other reason it is desirable to make the order or provisional order.

(4) When arbitration proceedings are to be consolidated under this section, the arbitrator or umpire for the consolidated proceedings shall be the person agreed on for the purpose by all the parties to the individual proceedings, but, failing any such agreement, the Court may appoint an arbitrator or umpire for the consolidated proceedings.

(5) Any proceedings before an arbitrator or umpire for the purposes of this section shall be taken to be part of the arbitration proceedings concerned.

(6) Arbitration proceedings may be commenced or continued, notwithstanding that an application to consolidate them is pending under subsection (1) or (2) and notwithstanding that a provisional order has been made in relation to them under subsection (2).

(7) Subsections (1) and (2) apply in relation to arbitration proceedings whether or not all or any of the parties are common to some or all of the proceedings.

(8) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) prevents the parties to 2 or more arbitration proceedings from agreeing to consolidate those proceedings and taking such steps as are necessary to effect that consolidation.

Section 27 substituted

17—Section 27 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:—

Settlement of disputes otherwise than by arbitration

27—(1) Parties to an arbitration agreement—

(a) may seek settlement of a dispute between them by mediation, conciliation or similar means; or

(b) may authorize an arbitrator or umpire to act as a mediator, conciliator or other non-arbitral intermediary between them (whether or not involving a conference to be conducted by the arbitrator or umpire)— whether before or after proceeding to arbitration, and whether or not continuing with the arbitration.

(2) Where—

- (a) an arbitrator or umpire acts as a mediator, conciliator or intermediary (with or without a conference) under subsection (1); and
 - (b) that action fails to produce a settlement of the dispute acceptable to the parties to the dispute—
- no objection shall be taken to the conduct by the arbitrator or umpire of the subsequent arbitration proceedings solely on the ground that the arbitrator or umpire had previously taken that action in relation to the dispute.

(3) Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, an arbitrator or umpire is bound by the rules of natural justice when seeking a settlement under subsection (1).

(4) Nothing in subsection (3) affects the application of the rules of natural justice to an arbitrator or umpire in other circumstances.

(5) The time appointed by or under this Act or fixed by an arbitration agreement or by an order under section 48 for doing any act or taking any proceeding in or in relation to an arbitration is not affected by any action taken by an arbitrator or umpire under subsection (1).

(6) Nothing in subsection (5) shall be construed as preventing the making of an application to the Court for the making of an order under section 48.

Section 29 amended (Form of award)

(2) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, but subject to subsection (4), where—

- (a) arbitration proceedings have been commenced for the recovery of a debt or liquidated damages; and
- (b) payment of the whole or a part of the debt or damages is made during the currency of the proceedings and prior to or without an award being made in respect of the debt or damages—

the arbitrator or umpire may order that interest be paid at such rate as the arbitrator or umpire may direct (being a rate not exceeding the rate at which interest is payable on a judgment debt of the Court) on the whole or any part of the money paid for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date of the payment.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), arbitration proceedings shall, for the purposes of that subsection, be deemed to have been commenced if—

(a) a dispute to which the relevant arbitration agreement applies has arisen; and

(b) a party to the agreement—

- (i) has served on another party to the agreement a notice requiring that other party to appoint an arbitrator or to join or concur in or approve of the appointment of an arbitrator in relation to the dispute; or
- (ii) has served on another party to the agreement a notice requiring the other party to refer, or to concur in the reference of, the dispute to arbitration; or

(iii) has taken any other step contemplated by the agreement or the law in force at the time the dispute arose, with a view to referring the dispute to arbitration or appointing, or securing the appointment of, an arbitrator in relation to the dispute.

(d) by renumbering subsection (2) as subsection (4);

Section 33 substituted

22—Section 33 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:—

Enforcement of award

33—An award made under an arbitration agreement may, by leave of the Court, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of the Court to the same effect and, where leave is so given, judgment may be entered in terms of the award.

Section 34 amended (Costs)

23—Section 34 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) by omitting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:—

(3) A provision in an arbitration agreement (being an arbitration agreement that provides for the reference of future disputes to arbitration) is void if—

(a) it is to the effect that a particular party, or the parties, to the agreement shall in any event pay their own costs of the arbitration or any part of those costs; or

(b) except in so far as it relates to a right of indemnity or a right of subrogation—it is to the effect that a particular party to the agreement shall in any event pay the costs of any other party or any part of those costs.

(b) by omitting from subsection (5) “made under this Act” and substituting “of court”;

(c) by omitting subsection (6) and substituting the following subsection:—

(6) Where in accordance with rules of court an offer of compromise has been made in relation to a claim to which an arbitration agreement applies, the arbitrator or umpire shall, in exercising the discretion as to costs conferred on the arbitrator or umpire by subsection (1), take into account both the fact that the offer was made and the terms of the offer.

24—Section 38 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) by omitting from subsection (4) “the” (secondly occurring) and substituting “an”;

(b) by omitting subsections (5), (6), (7) and (8) and substituting the following subsections:—

(5) The Supreme Court shall not grant leave under subsection (4) (b) unless it considers that—

(a) having regard to all the circumstances, the determination of the question of law concerned could substantially affect the rights of one or more parties to the arbitration agreement; and

(b) there is—

(i) a manifest error of law on the face of the award; or

(ii) strong evidence that the arbitrator or umpire made an error of law and that the determination of the question may add, or may be likely to add, substantially to the certainty of commercial law.

(6) The Supreme Court may make any leave which it grants under subsection (4) (b) subject to the applicant complying with any conditions it considers appropriate.

(7) Where the award of an arbitrator or umpire is varied on an appeal under subsection (2), the award as varied shall have effect (except for the purposes of this section) as if it were the award of the arbitrator or umpire.

(8) Unless the Court gives leave, an appeal shall not lie to the Full Court of the Court from a decision of the Court to grant or refuse leave under subsection (4) (b).

(2) Where there has been undue delay by a party, the Court may, on the application of any other party to the dispute or an arbitrator or umpire, make orders—

- (a) terminating the arbitration proceedings; and
- (b) removing the dispute into Court; and
- (c) dealing with any incidental matters.

(3) The Court shall not make an order under subsection (2) unless it is satisfied that the delay—

- (a) has been inordinate and inexcusable; and
- (b) will give rise to a substantial risk of it not being possible to have a fair trial of the issues in the arbitration proceedings or is such as is likely to cause or to have caused serious prejudice to the other parties to the arbitration proceedings.
