

(3) Before a guarantee is given by the Treasurer in pursuance of this section, the society in respect of which the guarantee is proposed to be given shall give to the Treasurer such security, if any, as the Treasurer may require and shall execute all such instruments as may be necessary for that purpose.

4—(1) If the Treasurer is called upon to make a payment to a bank in consequence of giving a guarantee under section three, the Treasurer shall upon the demand of the bank and without any authority other than this section, make that payment to the bank out of the Consolidated Revenue (which, to the necessary extent, is appropriated accordingly). Payments under guarantee.

(2) A society shall, upon demand being made on it by the Treasurer, pay to the Treasurer any amount paid to a bank by the Treasurer under this section in consequence of the giving of a guarantee in relation to that society, together with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum calculated from the day of payment by the Treasurer to the bank until repayment to him by the society.

(3) All moneys received by the Treasurer from a society under subsection (2) of this section shall be paid by the Treasurer into the Consolidated Revenue.

5 Notwithstanding anything in the Principal Act or in the rules of a society, or any other law or rule of law to the contrary, a society may, for the purposes of this Act, mortgage or charge, in favour of a bank or the Treasurer, or both, any of the property or other assets of the society. Power of society to mortgage or charge assets.
