SCHEDULE 1—PRESCRIBED AREA OF CROWN LAND

*****

AN ACT to provide for the extinguishment of the rights of passage over a section of Fenton Street in the city of Devonport.

[Royal Assent 9 December 1981]

WHEREAS the Tasmanian Library Board proposes to have a library, to be known as the Mersey Regional Library, erected on a site in the city of Devonport: Preamble.

AND WHEREAS that site includes an area of Crown land that forms a section of the highway known as Fenton Street, being a section of that highway between Best and Oldaker Streets:

AND WHEREAS it is necessary to provide that all public rights of passage over that area of Crown land shall be extinguished to enable that library to be erected on that site:

BE it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.      1—This Act may be cited as the Devonport (Fenton Street—Partial Closure) Act 1981.

Commencement.            2—(1) This section and section 1 shall commence on the date on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), this Act shall commence on such date as may be fixed by proclamation.

Interpretation.      3—In this Act, “ the prescribed area of Crown land ” means the area of Crown land containing 1 607 square metres in the city of Devonport which forms a section of the highway known as Fenton Street, being a section of that highway between Best and Oldaker Streets, and which is shown surrounded by a heavy black line on the plan set out in Schedule 1.

Extinguishment of public rights of passage over section of Fenton Street,
Devonport.      4—On the date fixed by proclamation under section 2 (2), all public rights of passage over the prescribed area of Crown land are extinguished.
