DEVONPORT WATER.

11 GEO. VI. No. 76.

AN ACT to amend the Devonport Water Act
1889. [5 December, 1947.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Devonport Water Act
1947.

(2) The Devonport Water Act 1889* is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Repeal.

2 The Formby Water Act 1938† is repealed.

* 53 Vict. No. 32, as amended by 54 Vict. No. 50, 55 Vict. No. 59, 2 Ed. VII. No. 25, 9 Ed. VII. No. 13, 3 Geo. V. No. 11, 14 Geo. V. No. 69, 20 Geo. V. No. 53, 2 Geo. VI.
No. 17, and 5 Geo. VI. No. 18.

† 2 Geo. VI. No. 17.

3 Sections twenty-five and twenty-six of the Principal Act are repealed and the following sections are substituted therefor:—

“25—(1) Where the outer boundary of any land situate within the town of Devonport on which there is any building, is within fifty feet of any main or other pipe of the council, and the owner of such building so requests, the council shall furnish to such owner at a point on such boundary a sufficient supply of water for domestic purposes in and about such building.

Supply of water for domestic use within the town.

(2) The cost of providing, laying down, affixing and maintaining service pipes and other necessary and proper appliances and apparatus shall be borne by the owner or occupier of such building, except the cost of maintaining, but not renewing, such service pipes from the main or other pipe of the council to the street boundary, which shall be borne by the council.

(3) Where the outer boundary of the owner's land is more than fifty feet from any main and the supply of water to such land necessitates the laying of a new main or the extension of an existing main the council may enter into a contract with such owner for such supply, and

- I. The council shall provide the capital cost of providing or extending such main:
- II. The owner shall pay interest, at such rate not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum as the council may determine, on the amount of such capital cost after the deduction from such interest of one-half the rates and charges received by the council in respect of the services provided by such new or extended main:
- III. If the owner of any land other than that in respect of which such contract was made is supplied with water from such new main or extension the interest payable under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be divided between and shall be payable by such owners in such proportions as the council may determine: and
- IV. All such interest shall be recoverable in like manner as all other rates of the council and shall be a charge on the land in respect of which it is payable; and if any such land is subdivided every allotment thereof shall remain charged with such proportion of such interest as the council may determine.

“26—(1) Upon the application of any owners or occupiers of houses, buildings, or other premises without the town of Devonport, the council in its discretion may supply water to such owners or occupiers as it sees fit, and, for that purpose, may lay down and maintain pipes without the town.

Supply of water to premises beyond the town.

(2) All such pipes, and all appliances and apparatus connected therewith, whether laid at the cost of the council or of any person to whom water is supplied, shall be and remain the property of the council.

(3) The council may supply water for domestic purposes to any person without the town in the like cases and in the like manner as provided in section twenty-five, but such supply may be upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the council and the person supplied, or as may be prescribed.

(4) The rate or charge for any such supply shall in no case be less than the amount paid by way of water rate or charge, whichever is the greater, for water supplied by the council within the town.”.
