

under the Tuberculosis (Campaign Arrangements) Act 1950 during the period beginning on the thirtieth day of June 1963 and ending on the date of the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been as validly and effectually done or made in all respects as if the expired Act and the Tuberculosis (Campaign Arrangements) Act 1950 had each been in force at the time when any such act, matter, or thing was done or, as the case may be, when any such payment was made; and

(b) all such—

(i) payments and re-appropriations may continue to be made;

(ii) loans may continue to be raised; and

(iii) other acts, matters, and things may continue to be done, respectively, under or for the purposes of the Tuberculosis (Campaign Arrangements) Act 1950 as might lawfully have been made, raised, or done if, before the thirtieth day of June 1963, that Act had been amended by the omission from subsection (1) of section two thereof of the words “until the thirtieth day of June 1963”.

(2) Nothing in this section renders any person liable—

(a) to any penalty in respect of a contravention of, or failure to comply with, a provision of the expired Act or any notice, direction, requirement, or order thereunder; or

(b) to be subjected to any examination, treatment, or detention by reason of anything done or omitted to be done by him contrary to any such provision, notice, direction, requirement, or order, or by reason of his failure to undergo any examination, treatment, or detention pursuant to the expired Act, during the period beginning on the date of expiry of that Act and ending on the date of the commencement of this Act.

EXPLOSIVES.

No. 41 of 1963.

AN ACT to amend the Explosives Act 1916.

[18 September 1963.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Explosives Act 1963.

(2) The Explosives Act 1916, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section eight of the Principal Act is amended by omitting paragraph (b) of subsection (4) thereof and substituting therefor the following paragraph:—

Where explosives may be made and kept.

“(b) an explosive on any premises for any purpose that may be prescribed as a purpose for which that explosive may be kept, so long as—

- (i) the quantity of that explosive kept on those premises does not exceed the maximum quantity that is prescribed for or in relation to the keeping of that explosive for that purpose; and
- (ii) all terms and conditions prescribed in relation to the keeping of that explosive are complied with in all respects.”.

3 Section ten of the Principal Act is amended—

Regulations.

(a) by inserting after paragraph (d) thereof the following paragraph:—

“(da) prescribing the precautions to be observed in relation to, and regulating, controlling, and restricting generally the use of explosives in places other than places to which the Mines and Works Regulation Act 1915 applies, including, but without prejudice to the generality of this paragraph—

- (i) the handling of explosives or prescribed kinds of explosives;
- (ii) the removal or destruction of fumes by mechanical or artificial means;
- (iii) the testing of explosives before use;
- (iv) the strength of detonators;
- (v) the persons who shall or shall not be permitted to prepare and fire charges of explosives or of any prescribed kinds of explosives, and the methods and precautions to be observed in doing so;
- (vi) the time that shall elapse before persons return to a place where shots of explosives have been fired or have missed fire; and
- (vii) the kinds, strength, and use of fuses;” and

(b) by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:—

“(2) The regulations may authorize the Chief Inspector to prohibit, either absolutely, or except in pursuance of a permit and subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector may impose, the importation of any explosive that, in the opinion of the Chief Inspector, is of such a character as to be dangerous to the public, and may regulate the exercise by the Chief Inspector of any authority so conferred on him.”.
