

3—(1) If, during his period of continuous employment with the company that terminated on his being taken into the employment of the Commission pursuant to the agreement, a transferred employee had not become entitled to long service leave under the Long Service Leave Act 1956 and does not become so entitled on the termination of that period of continuous employment, that period of continuous employment shall, for the purposes of the Principal Act, be treated as a period of continuous service as an employee within the meaning of that Act that is continuous with his service as an employee of the Commission.

Long-service
leave rights of transferred employees.

(2) References in subsection (1) of this section to continuous employment with the company shall be construed as references to employment that is to be treated as continuous employment with the company for the purposes of the Long Service Leave Act 1956 and the length of any such period of continuous employment shall for the purposes of this Act and the Principal Act be calculated in like manner as it is calculated for the purposes of the Long Service Leave Act 1956.

EDUCATION (No. 2).

No. 83 of 1968.

AN ACT to amend the Education Act 1932.

[24 December 1968.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Education Act (No. 83 of 1968). Short title and citation.

(2) The Education Act 1932, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2 Section forty-six A of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (11) and substituting therefor the following subsections:—

The Schools
Board of

“(11) The Schools Board may, with the approval of the Governor, make by-laws prescribing the travelling and other allowances to be paid to the members of the Board, and the Board shall pay the allowances so prescribed.

“(12) By-laws made for the purposes of subsection (11) of this section may provide that the amount of any allowance referred to therein is to be determined with reference to provisions of the awards of the Public Service Tribunal that may for the time being be in force.”.

3 Sections forty-six D and forty-six E of the Principal Act are repealed and the following sections are substituted therefor:—

by the Schools Board.

“46D—(1) Subject to this section, the Schools Board shall determine the certificates to be issued by it to persons in respect of their educational attainments, and shall issue those certificates to persons whose educational attainments, as assessed or determined in accordance with this section, qualify them for the issue of those certificates.

“(2) The Schools Board may, in relation to any such certificate as is referred to in subsection (1) of this section—

- (a) determine the courses of education in relation to which the assessments or determinations so referred to are to be made; and
- (b) determine the manner in which, and the matters in relation to which, those assessments and determinations are to be made.

“(3) For the purpose of giving effect to the determinations made under the foregoing provisions of this section the Schools Board may make arrangements for the making of the assessments and determinations referred to therein, and, in pursuance of those arrangements, it may—

- (a) appoint persons or committees to exercise such functions in relation to the making of those assessments or determinations as it may specify;
- (b) specify the functions to be exercised in relation to those assessments and determinations by teachers and other persons engaged in the provision of post-primary education; and
- (c) conduct, or arrange for the conduct of, examinations, and arrange for the publication of the results thereof and the furnishing of information in relation thereto to persons whom the Board considers should have that information.

“(4) In relation to any such examination as is referred to in subsection (3) of this section, the Schools Board may make rules with respect to—

- (a) the eligibility of persons to take the examination;
 - (b) the making of applications to take the examination; and
 - (c) the conduct of persons taking the examination,
- and rules under this subsection may provide for the exclusion, or removal, from any examination of a person, or the disregarding or cancelling of any papers or other material submitted by him at, or for the purposes of, the examination, in the event of his contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provisions of the rules.

“(5) The Schools Board may pay such remuneration, and such travelling or other allowances, as it may determine to persons not employed by the Board in respect of the exercise by them of the functions referred to in subsection (3) of this section.

“(6) The Governor may make regulations prescribing the manner in which any of the powers of the Schools Board under the foregoing provisions of this section are to be exercised, and those powers shall be exercised in accordance with any regulations so made.

“46E—(1) Subject to this section the Schools Board may, ^{Fees.} with the approval of the Governor, make by-laws prescribing the fees to be paid by any person or school in respect of any matter referred to in section forty-six D.

“(2) No fee shall be required to be paid under this section—

- (a) in respect of the issue of any such certificate as is referred to in subsection (1) of section forty-six D; or
- (b) in respect of the entry by any person for any examination conducted in pursuance of the arrangements made under subsection (3) of that section, other than an examination intended for persons who have received more than four years' post-primary education.”.
