

EX-SERVICEMEN'S BADGES.*No. 73 of 1967.

AN ACT to prohibit the unauthorized use or possession of membership badges issued by ex-servicemen's associations. [20 December 1967.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as the Ex-Servicemen's Badges Act Short title.
1967.

2 In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

Interpretation.
Cf. No. 79
of 1955, s. 2.

“association” means an ex-servicemen's association declared by proclamation to be an association to which this Act applies;

“ex-servicemen's badge” means a badge of the kind issued by an association for the purpose of indicating that the wearer is a member of that association;

“financial member” means a member of an association who has paid and continues to pay annually the subscription required by that association to be paid by its members, and includes a member who has not paid such subscription except where such subscription remains unpaid at the expiration of a period of three months after having become due.

3—(1) No person who is not a financial member of an association shall wear, or, without lawful excuse, have in his possession, an ex-servicemen's badge of that association.

Unauthorized use or possession of badges.
Ibid., s. 3.

(2) A person who contravenes any of the provisions of this section is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: For a first offence, twenty dollars; for a subsequent offence, fifty dollars.
