Forestry.

A.D. 1942. 2 Section forty-five of the Principal Act is hereby amended by inserting—

Amendment
of 11 Geo. V.
No. 60, s. 45.

- I. "(1)" at the commencement: and
- II. "(2) If, in the opinion of the Conservator, any person has committed an offence under this section, but the circumstances do not call for the imposition of the penalty prescribed by subsection (1) hereof, the Conservator, on payment by such person of such royalty, at a rate not exceeding five times the relevant rate prescribed, as the Conservator may determine may—
 - I. Allow such person to take, remove, or retain the whole or any part of the timber, forest product, or bark in relation to which the offence was committed: and
 - II. Waive or discontinue any proceedings in respect of such offence—either before or after the institution of any proceedings in respect thereof." (at the end).

Amendment
of 11 Geo. V.
No. 60, s. 60. 3 Section sixty of the Principal Act is hereby amended
by inserting—

- I. "(1)" at the commencement: and
- II. "(2) Where minimum prices or rates of royalty are prescribed, the Conservator in any case may determine by what percentage, if any, such prices or rates shall be increased having in view the estimated quality and value of the standing timber and its comparative accessibility; and the prices or rates as so increased shall be payable in such case." (at the end).
